General Background of Project or Assignment:

The Public Information Assistant will function under the supervision of the Head of National Office with direct coordination with the Public Information Associate for Central America (Regional Office). The incumbent will provide assistance to the Public Information Unit to ensure that routine services and activities within the communication domain are properly implemented. S/he is required to have basic conceptual knowledge of the profession, be dynamic and able to take on higher responsibility progressively. In performing his/her functions, the incumbent will refer to official UN and UNHCR manuals and guidelines. Upon receiving instructions from the supervisor, the PI Assistant is also expected to have contacts within the organization and outside the duty station, as well as with partners and other stakeholders to collect information, support PI activities and implement administrative requirements.

The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) is the UN Agency dedicated to protect the rights and seek durable solutions for refugees worldwide. UNHCR is in the field in over 125 countries.

The National Office in Honduras opened in 2015 in order to strengthen UNHCR’s protection work in the region as part of the UNHCR’s Regional Protection and Solutions Strategy for the Northern Triangle of Central America.

Central America is suffering a wave of violence stemming from organized criminal groups, including record high homicide rates, sexual violence, disappearances, forced recruitment into gangs, and extortion. The epidemic of violence is compelling a diverse range of people to flee their homes and to seek international protection, particularly in bordering and nearby countries. The United States of America, Belize, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama and El Salvador are all affected, either as countries of origin, transit or destination, and in some cases, in a combination of these.

As far as Public Information is concerned, the Unit aims to make visible and raise awareness of this protection situation and support the Office’s strategy for the protection of UNHCR’s people of concern in Central America. The Public Information Assistant will be part of the Public Information Unit for the NTCA Situation which includes the Senior Regional PI Officer, the Public Information Associate for Central America and the Public Information Assistants for the NTCA.

Purpose and scope of assignment:

Under the direct supervision of the UNHCR Head of National Office and in direct coordination with the Public Information Associate for Central America, the Public Information Assistant will undertake the following tasks:
