Terms of Reference for Contractors
Communications campaign to mark UNDP's 25th Anniversary in Armenia
25 Years with Armenia: 25 Ways UNDP Transformed Lives of Armenians

Background and context:

The 25th anniversary of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in Armenia is an opportunity to reflect on the UNDP's activities in Armenia since 1993 and take stock of its long-lasting achievements. It is also an opportunity to focus where the UNDP needs to further increase its efforts to address current and future challenges across the three pillars of its work: sustainable development, democratic governance, and climate and disaster resilience.

UNDP has been present in Armenia for 25 years, and holds a unique position as a neutral and key partner to the Government of Armenia, civil society and Armenian citizens. It works at the policy level, advising on legal and policy frameworks, while at the same time implementing projects to model innovative, sustainable solutions. UNDP also has an enormous reach across the country - in rural and urban areas and amongst a growing network of youth, innovators and social entrepreneurs.

Mission and vision:

UNDP in Armenia promotes equal opportunities and a dignified life for all by modelling and implementing innovative and sustainable solutions to Armenia's development challenges. Our vision for Armenia's development includes - a diversified rural economy with strong elements of tourism development, engagement of innovators and citizens in governance processes, a more sustainable approach to managing Armenia's natural resources, and preparing the country to address a range of natural disasters that Armenia is exposed to.

Overall objective/s:

The objective is to develop a communications campaign, including development, production and roll-out of creative communications solutions/tools, to mark the 25th anniversary of UNDP's establishment in Armenia. We are looking for innovative communications ideas and tools on how to best reach and meaningfully (emotionally) communicate (empathize) with the primary target audiences to reinforce UNDP as the "lead organization for change" and one of the leading development actors in Armenia. The campaign should have also elements of resource mobilization – the communications content and materials should be designed with that in mind.

Through this communications campaign, UNDP in Armenia would like:

- To illustrate UNDP's contribution towards transformation of the lives of Armenians in 25 years, using country level examples;
- To demonstrate the change in development situation in Armenia since 1993 that was prompted by UNDP, using country level examples;
- To visualize the impact of UNDP projects and initiatives at national, regional and community levels;
- To strengthen and create partnerships through increased participation, engagement and knowledge sharing;
- To gain society's positive attitude/empathy and recognition of the work done by UNDP in Armenia.

Primary target audience:

- ⇒ Government of Armenia (at central, regional and municipal levels) and its affiliated structures;
- ⇒ Traditional and emerging international donor community;
- ⇒ Private sector;
- ⇒ Active youth wishing to have an impact on socio-economic and governance reform agenda in Armenia.

Messages

The theme of the campaign is “25 Years with Armenia: 25 Ways UNDP Transformed Lives of Armenians.” The tone of the messages should be evidence-based, persuasive and emotional. However, we should be sensitive about the existing development challenges in Armenia.

We want the target audience to perceive that UNDP:

- ✓ works in an open, impartial and transparent manner with its partners, both in government and non-government sectors, in line with the internationally recognized UN norms, values, standards and good practices;
- ✓ promotes social innovation, cutting-edge methodologies, and is the platform to incubate ideas, projects or social start-ups;
- ✓ is present at national, regional and local levels, supporting the long-term nature of Armenia’s sustainable development;
- ✓ acts as a global knowledge broker- ensuring the transfer of knowledge across the globe and its adaptation to the local context;
- ✓ always seeks collaborative and partnership approaches to address development challenges. By working TOGETHER, we can make a difference.

Communications channels:

The creative concepts and tools should ideally use transmedia storytelling, choosing the most appropriate media channels and tools for each target audience.

Branding guidelines:

All campaign materials and deliverables should be prominently marked with and bear the UNDP logo and tagline (Empowered Lives. Resilient Nations.)

Supervision:

The contractor will be supervised and report to the UNDP Communication Analyst and the UNDP Task Force created for organizing the UNDP 25th anniversary events.

Major tasks to be accomplished:

- Develop creative, “out of the box” outreach and engagement campaign, using modern and relevant concepts communications tools and roll-out timeline to illustrate UNDP’s contribution and achievements towards transformation of the lives of Armenians in 25 years.

Required qualifications/experience:

- Advanced understanding of broad UNDP values, and UNDP activities globally and in Armenia;
- Proven experience in designing and executing communications campaigns;
- Proven experience in video and digital production;
- Previous successful experience with UNDP or other UN agencies would be an asset;
- Demonstrated ability to meet deadline and work under pressure.

Key personnel qualifications:

- Team Leader, a minimum of 5 year professional experience in public relations/communications;
- Communications Expert, a minimum of 5 year experience in designing effective communications campaigns;
- Digital Production Expert, a minimum of 4 year experience in digital (video) production.

Timeframe:

The selected contractor will work for the period of 4 months (July 2017 – October 2017). The exact schedule of the activities will be agreed upon with the contractor based on the implementation progress. The deadline for submission of final deliverables to UNDP is 31 October, 2017.
