Terms of Reference (TOR)

1. Background

Many policies and action plans have been drawn up to empower youth in Sri Lanka and there are many stakeholders who have continued to invest in youth programmes. Numerous stakeholder groups including the Government, civil society, development partners and private sector have been engaged in activities related to youth. Despite such very well intended efforts, much remains to be done. Additionally, there seems to be a lack of a coherent strategic direction, resulting in duplication of efforts and ad hoc interventions.

The National Human Development Report 2014 on youth and development continues to inform youth policy making in Sri Lanka and looks at human development from a youth perspective. The report informs policy making by looking at education, employment, health, civic and political participation, reconciliation and social integration. The National Youth Policy, which was launched in 2014, identifies the need for national road map with clear milestones for youth related programmes.

In line with Government priorities identified through Vision 2025 and Agenda 2030, to empower youth of Sri Lanka through a more coordinated approach, the Ministry of Youth Affairs, Project Management and Southern Development is leading efforts to develop a national Comprehensive Youth Development Programme (CYDP). As part of United Nations Development Programme's (UNDP) strengthening institutions for effective public service delivery initiative, UNDP will support the development of CYDP to initiate a 360-degree approach to mainstream integrated youth development in Sri Lanka. CYDP will provide coherent strategic direction and look at the 'bigger picture' with the necessary coordination and continued backing through collaboration of stakeholders to 'Leaving No Youth behind'.

CYPD is a programme that provides a framework to empower young people to overcome challenges and give the opportunities to build a meaningful happy life that includes positive connections, safe, healthy and stable places to live, learn and work. It is expected to create more exposure and opportunities for young entrepreneurs and skilled young professionals in various sectors including the digital economy, tourism, services, commercial agriculture and to attain the status of a modern manufacturing economy.

This programme is an intentional, prosocial approach that engages youth within their communities, schools, organizations, peer groups, and families in a manner that is productive and constructive; recognizes, utilizes, and enhances young people's strengths and skills; and promotes positive outcomes for young people by providing opportunities to build on their leadership strengths.

2. Scope and Objectives

This comprehensive mapping of youth development sector in Sri Lanka is conducted to identify different actors, scope of their work, financial and non-financial investments/allocations, availability and accessibility of services and centers and programmes and trainings conducted for the young people at a national and sub-national level.

3. Expected Outputs

Deliverables:

The key deliverables are as follows:

1. Submission of a mutually agreed timeline to achieve all the key deliverables.
2. Successful completion of a mapping of youth-led, youth-serving and youth-engaging organizations with details on the scope of their work in Sri Lanka
