This Contract is between the United Nations Development Programme, a subsidiary organ of the United Nations established by the General Assembly of the United Nations (hereinafter “UNDP”), on the one hand, and a company or organization indicated in the Face Sheet of this Contract (hereinafter the “Contractor”), on the other hand.

1. LEGAL STATUS OF THE PARTIES: UNDP and the Contractor shall be referred to as a “Party” or, collectively, “Parties” hereunder, and:

1.1 Pursuant, inter alia, to the Charter of the United Nations and the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, the United Nations, including its subsidiary organs, has full juridical personality and enjoys such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the independent fulfillment of its purposes.

1.2 The Contractor shall have the legal status of an independent contractor vis-à-vis UNDP, and nothing contained in or relating to the Contract shall be construed as establishing or creating between the Parties the relationship of employer and employee or of principal and agent. The officials, representatives, employees, or subcontractors of each of the Parties shall not be considered in any respect as being the employees or agents of the other Party, and each Party shall be solely responsible for all claims arising out of or relating to its engagement of such persons or entities.

2. OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONTRACTOR:

2.1 The Contractor shall perform and complete the services described in the Terms of Reference and Schedule of Payments (hereinafter the “Services”), with due diligence and efficiency, and in accordance with this Contract. The Contractor shall also provide all technical and administrative support needed in order to ensure the timely and satisfactory performance of the Services.

2.2 The Contractor represents and warrants the accuracy of any information or data provided to UNDP for the purpose of entering into this Contract, as well as the quality of the deliverables and reports foreseen under this Contract, in accordance with the highest industry and professional standards.

2.3 All time limits contained in this Contract shall be deemed to be of the essence in respect of the performance of the provision of the Services.

3. LONG TERM AGREEMENT: If the Contractor is engaged by UNDP on the basis of a long-term agreement (“LTA”) as indicated in the Face Sheet of this Contract, the following conditions shall apply:

3.1 UNDP does not warrant that any quantity of Services shall be ordered during the term of the LTA.

3.3 The Contractor shall provide the Services, as and when requested by UNDP and reflected in a purchase order, which shall be subject to the terms and conditions stipulated in this Contract. For the avoidance of doubt, UNDP shall acquire no legal obligations towards the Contractor unless and until a purchase order is issued.

3.4 The Services shall be at the Discount Prices annexed hereto. The prices shall remain in effect for a period of three years from the Starting Date stated in the Face Sheet of this Contract.

3.5 In the event of any advantageous technical changes and/or downward pricing of the Services during the term of the retainer, the Contractor shall notify UNDP immediately. UNDP shall consider the impact of any such event and may request an amendment to the retainer.

UNDP reserves the right to verify whether such a plan is in place, and to suggest modifications to the plan when necessary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Contractor shall remain solely responsible for the security of its personnel and for UNDP's property in its custody as set forth above.

TERMS OF REFERENCE (PREVENTING VIOLENT EXTREMISM-PVE EXTREME LIVES VIDEO PRODUCTION)

a. Background Information and Rationale, Project Description

In recent years, the world has witnessed a resurgence of violent extremism that has threatened the security and stability of societies beyond national and regional theatres of conflict.

Since 2000, there have been over 73,000 terrorist attacks globally, killing more than 170,000 people. In 2015, the overall impact of terrorism and violent extremism grew with more countries recording the highest numbers of deaths on record. The economic impact of violence on the global economy in 2015 was estimated to be $13.6 trillion, equivalent to 13.3 per cent of the world GDP. Violent extremism is not a new phenomenon in Asia. But there is increasing concern that the international influence of Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) and their methods are bringing new insecurity to the region.

Efforts to counter violent extremism increasingly suggest that young people should be specifically targeted in awareness and advocacy campaigns. Indeed, the UN Secretary-General's Plan of Action to Prevent Violent Extremism, adopted in December 2015, acknowledges that "we will not be successful unless we can harness the idealism, creativity and energy of young people and others who feel disenfranchised."

UNDP's leading role within the UN system in identifying development solutions to violent extremism, and its network of 24 country offices in the region, long experience with civil society engagements and strong standing with governments, offers the agency a unique opportunity to engage regional audiences in dialogues that counter violent extremist ideologies.

#ExtremeLives

In August 2017, UNDP and Facebook launched #ExtremeLives, a Facebook Live series that promotes stories from the local level of people who have been affected by violent extremism. The first series interviewed a former terrorist, an advisor on reintegrating ex-ISIS supporters back into society, a woman working on localized prevention strategies in at-risk communities, and a campaigner fighting ISIS online. After the first three episodes, the series had reached over three million people, with the top viewing countries being: Bangladesh, Pakistan, Indonesia, Malaysia and Afghanistan.
