I. BACKGROUND / PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Recently, the Government of Ethiopia (GoE) has embarked on reform processes in a number of areas including a comprehensive transformation of the country's communications and media sector. The ultimate objective of this reform initiative is to stimulate the growth of an independent, diverse and vibrant media sector by creating a conducive legal and institutional framework to enhance this development. The media reform initiative will imply transformative change in policy and laws as well as strengthen independent media institutions and improve media self-regulation.

The revision of media law, which is part of comprehensive reform of the legal and justice system will be spearheaded by The Legal and Justice Affairs Advisory Council which was established in 2018 by the Office of the FDRE Attorney General. The primary role of the council is to advise the Ethiopian Government in its pursuit to:

- undertaking a rigorous assessment of laws, institutional set-ups, performances and competence of the justice system and select democratic governance institutions;
- identifying/analyzing/collating the key challenges encountered in realizing an accountable public administration system, rule of law and full implementation of constitutionally guaranteed rights; and
- proposing to the Office of the Attorney General highly-researched, pragmatic and programmatic reform packages that address the legal and institutional shortcomings.

Constituted of thirteen legal professionals, the Council has endorsed a strategic roadmap that charts out its core activities for the coming three years – and has furthermore set up a Secretariat. The Secretariat, which shall be supervised by the Head and two Program Directors, shall be staffed with highly competent and experienced legal professionals serving as sub-program managers and officers and adequate pool of support personnel.

The legal reform initiative, headed by the secretariat, will have a professional with experience in media law who will advise and lead on the day-to-day basis the revision of laws related to media, institutional bottlenecks, and legal issues related to quality assurance, ethical standardization and professionalism in the media sector.

Against this backdrop, the Government of Ethiopia, through the Office of Attorney General expressed interest to collaboratively work with UNDP including the provision of a short-term technical assistance that would assist the government in materializing this vision. Inspired by the government's swift and bold move to reforms on various fronts, UNDP has committed to provide Technical Assistance (TA) on selected areas, among which the media sector is one.

II. OBJECTIVES OF THE CONSULTANCY
