1. BACKGROUND

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are global goals and Nepal was amongst the first countries to develop an approach paper on the SDGs. The aspirations of the SDGs can only be achieved through a wide participation and effort by stakeholders at the national, provincial and local levels.

In order to garner the widest possible momentum for the SDGs in Nepal, there will need to be a focus not only at the national level, but also ensure the active participation and engagement of stakeholders at sub-national levels.

This comprises mainstreaming the SDGs agenda into the provincial and local level planning and budgeting. To achieve the SDGs by 2030, it is crucial to engage development partners, civil society and private sector actors in the development process. As the SDG implementation process has recently begun, most of the stakeholders have only recently been introduced to this topic.

The key entry-point and agreement for the UN to engage on the SDGs is the United Nations Development Assistance Framework (UNDAF) 2018-2022. It provides many opportunities for the United Nations (UN) to support national partners in integrated development policy and programme development. The new UNDAF has integrated the SDGs in each of its priority areas. The processes of assisting Nepal to achieve the Agenda 2030 and the SDGs to become a Middle -Income Country by 2030 are integral components of the UNDAF. The four areas of the UNDAF are aligned with the national plans and programmes of Nepal, including the SDGs, but a key element will be to identify how the national policies can be articulated and implemented at the provincial and local levels in line with the SDGs and Agenda 2030. An integral element of the UNDAF is also the focus on ensuring that no one is left behind and therefore requires reflections around how to ensure that there is sufficient disaggregated data and indicators to make the necessary policy corrections.

The objective of the consultancy is to develop a provincial level assessment report to localize the SDGs and operationalize the UNDAF at the provincial level with a strong focus on “Leave No One Behind”. This includes closely consulting with the field offices of UN Agencies and secondly with wider stakeholders including Government, civil society, private sectors and youth groups at the provincial level. The consultant will assess the major gaps in the SDGs implementation as articulated in UNDAF 2018-2022, in relation with who does what, when and where and prioritizing the UNDAF priority areas at the field level, this could also include suggestions for areas of joined-up UN approaches where they do not already exist.
