Question #1: I would like to know if the service can be provided, partly remote and partly with physical presence in Panama?

Answer to Question #1: No, the consultancy duty station is Panama.

Question #2: With other consultancy services I provided, we used to coordinate a schedule in advance, so we defined together the days that I will be physically at the duty station, and the days that I will work remotely. Is it possible in this opportunity?

Answer to Question #2: No, the consultant needs to be physically at the duty station for all the consultancy duration.

Question #3: Does the consultancy service, require travelling inside Panama or other countries? Which countries (if it is the case)?

Answer to Question #3: No travelling inside Panama is required, it is possible that the consultant needs to do some international travels, the specific countries will be decided during the consultancy.

End of the clarification.
