GENERAL PROVISIONS
1. Introduction	1.1 Bidders shall adhere to all the requirements of this RFP, including any amendments in writing by UNDP. This RFP is conducted in accordance with the UNDP Programme and Operations Policies and Procedures (POPP) on Contracts and Procurement which can be accessed at https://popp.undp.org/SitePages/POPPBSUnit.aspx?TermID=254a9f96-b883-476a-8ef8-e81f93a2b38d 1.2 Any Proposal submitted will be regarded as an offer by the Bidder and does not constitute or imply the acceptance of the Proposal by UNDP. UNDP is under no obligation to award a contract to any Bidder as a result of this RFP. 1.3 As part of the bid, it is desired that the Bidder registers at the United Nations Global Marketplace (UNGM) website (www.ungm.org). The Bidder may still submit a bid even if not registered with the UNGM. However, if the Bidder is selected for contract award, the Bidder must register on the UNGM prior to contract signature.
2. Fraud & Corruption, Gifts and Hospitality	2.1 UNDP strictly enforces a policy of zero tolerance on proscribed practices, including fraud, corruption, collusion, unethical or unprofessional practices, and obstruction of UNDP vendors and requires all bidders/vendors observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement process and contract implementation. UNDP's Anti-Fraud Policy can be found at http://www.undp.org/content/undp/en/home/operations/accountability/audit/office_of_audit_andinvestigation.html#anti 2.2 Bidders/vendors shall not offer gifts or hospitality of any kind to UNDP staff members including recreational trips to sporting or cultural events, theme parks or offers of holidays, transportation, or invitations to extravagant lunches or dinners. 2.3 In pursuance of this policy, UNDP (a) Shall reject a proposal if it determines that the selected bidder has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question; (b) Shall declare a vendor ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a contract if at any time it determines that the vendor has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing a UNDP contract. 2.4 All Bidders must adhere to the UN Supplier Code of Conduct, which may be found at http://www.un.org/depts/ptd/pdf/conduct_english.pdf
3. Eligibility	3.1 A vendor should not be suspended, debarred, or otherwise identified as ineligible by any UN Organization or the World Bank Group or any other international Organization. Vendors are therefore required to disclose to UNDP whether they are subject to any sanction or temporary suspension imposed by these organizations. 3.2 It is the Bidder's responsibility to ensure that its employees, joint venture members, sub-contractors, service providers, suppliers and/or their employees meet the eligibility requirements as established by UNDP.

33. Responsiveness of Proposal	33.1 UNDP's determination of a Proposal's responsiveness will be based on the contents of the Proposal itself. A substantially responsive Proposal is one that conforms to all the terms, conditions, TOR and other requirements of the RFP without material deviation, reservation, or omission. 33.2 If a Proposal is not substantially responsive, it shall be rejected by UNDP and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the material deviation, reservation, or omission.
34. Nonconformities, Reparable Errors and Omissions	34.1 Provided that a Proposal is substantially responsive, UNDP may waive any non-conformities or omissions in the Proposal that, in the opinion of UNDP, do not constitute a material deviation. 34.2 UNDP may request the Bidder to submit the necessary information or documentation, within a reasonable period of time, to rectify nonmaterial nonconformities or omissions in the Proposal related to documentation requirements. Such omission shall not be related to any aspect of the price of the Proposal. Failure of the Bidder to comply with the request may result in the rejection of its Proposal. 34.3 For Financial Proposal that has been opened, UNDP shall check and correct arithmetical errors as follows: a) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the line item total that is obtained by multiplying the unit price by the quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the line item total shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of UNDP there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price; in which case the line item total as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected; b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and

	c) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail. 34.4 If the Bidder does not accept the correction of errors made by UNDP, its Proposal shall be rejected.

Section 5. Terms of Reference

TERMS OF REFERENCE

I. DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES
Title of Services	Organization for the provision of services to build youth leadership capacity and mainstream young men and women in policy processes which will lead to support inclusive and pro-youth legislation
Location of Assignment	Islamabad and other provinces
Project	Joint Initiative of Youth Empowerment Programme (YEP) and Supporting Electoral and Legislative Processes (SELP) Project
Engagement Modality	Contract for Professional Services
Period of assignment/services	Two years starting from the date of signing of contract
Justification	The project needs to contract an organization due to the following reasons: Under its programmatic Pillar 1 (Undertaking upstream and downstream work to mainstream and include youth in policy level discussions to contribute to inclusive and pro-youth legislation) UNDP's Youth Empowerment Programme (YEP) seeks to offer young people chances for effective engagement with policy community through leadership skills leading to opportunities for direct interface with policy makers to table their issues and find collaborative solutions. YEP's foundational work undertaken in 2018 facilitating interaction between young people and policy and Supporting Electoral and Legislative Processes (SELP) Project's work in KP with youth and young parliamentarians highlighted the gap between young people and policy makers. Many policy makers welcomed UNDP's efforts and acknowledged that they have not interacted first hand with young people and deemed the interaction with young people critical for inclusive and pro-youth legislation and policymaking for achieving SDGs goals for Pakistan. Young people, especially those belonging to rural areas and/or lesser developed regions of the country, seldom get opportunities to interact or raise their issues first hand with policy makers. Ongoing work in this domain in Pakistan is either upstream or downstream – with little or no connections between the two streams of work. YEP and SELP see value in soliciting applications from organizations which can provide more holistic approaches for meaningful engagement and inclusion of young people in policy making processes for both upstream and downstream work. UNDP is soliciting applications from organizations which can offer expertise, experience and linkages for undertaking work with parliamentarians, government, key policy actors and educational institutions at national and provincial levels and can also offer demonstrated outreach, networks and experience of organizing and capacity building of young people at the grassroots. UNDP is looking for organizations which can undertake upstream and downstream programming work simultaneously to ensure that engagement at grassroots translates into some sort of linkage between youth and local government and discourse based on needs of youth feeds into provincial and national discourse on inclusive and pro-youth legislation and policymaking. Organizations which apply to this RFP should be able to sign MoUs with educational institutions (universities/colleges) to engage young people institutionally.

II. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Background

There are more than 1.8 billion young people between the ages of 10-24 years in the world today, majority of whom are concentrated in developing countries. Disadvantaged by their locations, these young people face higher levels of poverty, economic inequality, and political instability compared to youth in rich and stable countries. These at-risk youth are also particularly vulnerable to and directly affected by national environments prone to disaster, conflict, violence and organized crime.

This development challenge is most visible in Pakistan where dynamic demographic shifts are occurring. Having suffered one of the highest global instances of terrorism in the last two decades, Pakistan is the fifth most populous and one of the youngest countries in the world. Currently, it has the largest generation of young people ever recorded in national history. Sixty-four per cent (64%) of Pakistanis are below the age of 30, and 29% are aged between 15-29 years.

Understanding the risks, vulnerabilities, barriers, challenges, needs and aspirations of Pakistani youth and finding opportunities to catalyze their potential is essential if Pakistan is to succeed in promoting sustainable and inclusive development processes, and achieve its Sustainable Development Goals as outlined in the Government of Pakistan's Vision 2025 Roadmap. The UNDP approaches this issue through an inclusive development lens in line with the SDGs 2030 Agenda, working to advance young people's participation in civic and political life, their economic empowerment and their role as resilience-builders.

In Pakistan, UNDP is at the forefront of promoting youth-focused development programming through its flagship Kamyab Jawan: Youth Empowerment Programme (YEP), which supports the Government of Pakistan in the implementation of the UNDP National Human Development Report 2017's recommendations as well as the national and provincial priorities related to youth empowerment and employment. SELP project of UNDP is working with the parliamentary institutions for strengthening their representatives, legislative and oversight functions.

These interventions are aimed to support Pakistan's Federal and Provincial Governments to devise and implement integrated and pragmatic strategies by increasing tolerance, reducing inequalities and increasing engagement with different groups including youth in public life. YEP's three programmatic pillars comprise: 1) Promotion of civic and social engagement of youth for effective and inclusive policy-making and implementation; 2) Provision of critical life and livelihood skills to at-risk, vulnerable, marginalized and excluded youth segments – particularly young women, girls, minorities, trans-genders and especially abled youth -- to help them integrate and succeed in an inclusive and progressive society; and 3) Promotion of economic empowerment of youth through employment and entrepreneurship. As a five-year national programme with a provincial and regional footprint, YEP is currently being implemented at Federal and Provincial levels (Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Balochistan and Sindh), and is an integral component of the UNDP Pakistan Country Programme Document 2018-22.

Young people presently lack the skills and opportunities to feed into and influence policy discussions which impact them the most. The absence of mechanisms at national, provincial and local level to facilitate direct interaction and linkages between young people and relevant government representatives translates into non-inclusive and non-responsive planning which does not address the needs of young people. There is a dearth of mechanisms to consolidate discussions at policy levels (if any) to feed into provincial and national discourse to ensure inclusion and pro-youth legislation. Young people have expressed frustrations over being consulted for feedback and opinions and no resultant inclusion in processes. Policy Makers often do not engage in critical discourse over youth development and key needs of the youth and appear to be disconnected from youth groups. This can also be proven by limited uptake of facilities and support announced by governments for the youth.

In this context, UNDP through YEP and SELP aims to initiate a holistic programme to bridge the gaps and connect young people to each other and to policy makers. UNDP also seeks to build capacity of young elected members of parliament on pro-youth legislation and key youth issues. In this context, it is critical to organize young people, invest in their capacity building and facilitate their direct linkages with all levels of government. Enabling young people to connect to policy community and government will help influence policy planning and budgeting to be more inclusive and to make it more responsive to the needs of young people. Young people reached on ground will be trained and equipped with skills to engage in and lead meaningful discussions with policy makers at provincial and national level. Awareness raising on legislative processes, key actors and stakeholders and mechanisms which can be used to influence policy level discourse will help young people in taking a lead role in influencing policy making and implementation. Sensitization of parliamentarians and key policy actors on youth issues and direct interface with youth will help support pro-youth legislation and policies as well as inclusion of young people in discourse undertaken in provincial and national parliaments.

2. Scope of Work

UNDP seeks to engage an organization to undertake the following work.

Upstream Component

1. Map and identify young parliamentarians, any existing young parliamentary forums and/or youth parliament and national level and in KP, Balochistan and Sindh, organize them (potentially as youth parliamentary forums) and support their capacity building on legislative processes, youth needs on ground, communication, advocacy and leadership skills.
2. Formation, Facilitation and capacity building of young parliamentary forums/caucuses of Young Parliamentarians (Member of National Assembly/Member of Provincial Assembly) in KP, Balochistan and Sindh with other provinces and regions for linkage building and networking to support pro-youth legislation and inclusion of youth in policy making processes – build digital networks of young parliamentarians across the country for exchanging information and developing synergies.
3. Facilitate linkages between young people and parliamentarians leading to solid recommendations informing strategies for ensuring inclusion of young people in policy level discourse and effective advocacy for pro-youth legislation
 - Engage parliamentarians and young leaders at provincial level in Sindh, Balochistan and KP and at national level and arrange for dialogues (9 provincial dialogues – 3 in each province and 2 national dialogues) and moderated discussions between policy makers and young people through consultations, dialogues and interactive events.
 - Organize a series of events familiarizing selected youth from universities and colleges to visit provincial/national assemblies and senate for increased understanding of how policy making processes work.
 - Organize events in universities (at least 5 in each province) where parliamentarians are invited and sensitized on youth issues and prevalent challenges through interactive sessions and innovative approaches.
4. Link youth groups directly to policy makers (including Parliamentary Committees) bridging the gap between them and finalize a strategy and workplan for continued interaction

Downstream Component:

5. Engage at least 7000 youth in KP, Balochistan and Sindh through partnerships with universities (Public and Private but preferably Public) and colleges (at least 3-4 universities in each province) in dialogues and discussions around youth issues and key challenges faced by young people.
6. Build youth capacity on communication, presentation, advocacy and leadership skills. Youth capacity should also be built on youth issues as highlighted in YEP's previous youth engagement work
7. Organize dialogues between youth from different districts for exchange of views and critical discourse about youth issues and fault lines which lead youth towards negative coping strategies using universities as hubs for this discourse
8. Develop linkages between youth and local, provincial and national governments including youth councilors in local government.
9. Invest in capacity building and sensitization of national, provincial and local government on youth issues and challenges faced by them for responsive and inclusive planning and budgeting at local level
10. Link youth to pre-existing public institutions and spaces where they can interact, take part in sports, arts and cultural activities and advocate for importance of co-curricular activities at universities building synergies with UNDP's on-campus programming for 2019-20.
11. Link youth accessed through the project including university groups/societies to each other and to parliamentarians for continued interaction (possibly digitally).
12. Finalize provincial strategies and work plans for KP, Balochistan and Sindh for linkages developed and networks formed to be taken up by provincial and local governments to ensure youth remains mainstreamed at local level.

The young people engaged through universities and colleges will be trained and sensitized through the downstream component to meaningfully engage with policy makers/parliamentarians in the upstream component.
