

BPPS/GT/2019/2000: Gender Equality Award for Public Institutions Online Platform

Questions and Answers

Number	Question	Answer
1.	Because we feel that the scope of work and requirements fit extremely well with our line of work, we are coming to you with a query of whether you would consider extending the deadline by a week, so that we may have an opportunity to submit our proposal?	The RFP deadline has been extended to COB, 1800 hours, 10 November 2019 (EST).
2.	The 10 products that you've outlined in the TOR, does needs to be built under one root, meaning using one platform or, a few suitable platforms could be pulled to work together to address the requirements efficiently?	We are open to the more efficient and user-friendly options.
3.	Is it necessary that the bidding company must have project implementation experience in one or, more countries listed in the General Background section? I.E. Panama, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Moldova, Egypt, Benin, DRC, Iraq, Armenia and, Rwanda.	No necessarily.
4.	Can we propose a better time line for the implementation of the project?	The project timeline might be changed upon discussion to ensure final quality. However, flexibility is not big.
5.	Do you have any preference for the web platform and/or CMS?	No.
6.	Do you require live video conferencing for webinars under e-learning section?	Yes, this would be a great option