Third-Party Monitoring of UN Multi-Partner Trust Funds National Window Pilot Project to Strengthen Service Delivery in Somalia

| Query | Clarification Requested   | UNDPs Response to the Request for Clarification   |
|-------|---|---|
| 1     | The RFP, on pages 34-35, mention; The Contractor will have sole responsibility for all logistical, administrative and maintenance support necessary to its personnel for the duration of the contract with no responsibility on the part of UNDP. This shall include the following; <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>i. Welfare of its staff (duty of care) including payment of salaries, medical, medical and casualty evacuation from Somalia in the event of a security breakdown.</li><li>ii. Arrangements for logistics across all aspects of the assignment including flights into South Central Somalia including in the newly recovered regions, Somali land and Puntland (if required), in-country transport for its operations, accommodation and visa requirements.</li><li>iii. Security for all its personnel and assets. Neither the UNDP nor its national partners shall provide security facilities or be liable for any individual and material damage.</li><li>iv. Ensure adequate communication between the Contractor and UNDP.</li></ul> The financial proposal form, foresees travels costs (as part of expenses) and communication costs (as part of "other related costs", but doesn't mention security costs. Could you please then clarify on which budget line we should include the security costs for the team? | Please refer to Section 7 (p46) of the RFP wherein Proposers are advised to add rows (for additional costs) if required. Therefore, Please add rows for any additional costs required. |
