#	Question	Answer
1	It is stated in ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR that delivery of the products should be done within half year: “Early delivery of medicines to Ukraine is critical therefore we encourage shortest delivery periods . 100% quantities must be delivered within 6 months at the latest after signing the contract . The bids with later delivery dates will be disqualified”.	This is a standard condition for the medicines. As to radiopharmaceuticals the delivery timeframe is agreed separately based on hospitals demands (on a monthly and weekly basis) and further could exceed 6 months.
2	It is stated in ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR that tender is conducted for 4 lots, including “Samarium (153Sm) lexidronam (153Sm) oxabifor”. Is it allowed to submit bid offer without this lot?	As it is stated in ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR, Data Sheet, DS No. 5, C.20, Conditions for Submitting Bid for Parts or sub-parts of the Total Requirements - The Bidder may submit Bid for separate Lots/Items
3	What demand is included to the quantities to be procured within ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR?	The quantity to be procured included the demand: a) 2016 year (additional); b) 2017 year (according to Decree CMU).
4	In ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR, article PRODUCT STANDARDS, OPTION 2 [B+C] it is stated requirement - Registered in Ukraine and at least one successfully completed supply of this product in/to Ukraine within the past 3 years (since December 2013)	To confirm this requirement, it is necessary to attach copies of the contract or reference-letters.
5	For electronical submission which documents should be signed and sealed?	Only the main documents should be signed and sealed – forms, offers, guarantees, letters. The rest (for example, certificates) – should not be attested, and it is enough of the scan copy.
6	For what period should be presented Financial Report?	Financial Report should be presented for a period of 1 year, there is no need to present it for quarters.

7	It is stated in ITB 59-2017-UNDP-UKR that CPP should be presented. If CPP is with unlimited validity, could it be presented?	CPP with unlimited validity. It is preferably to present with the validity 3 years.
