

Questions and Answers No.2

Process: 5733

Research on the economic return to investment in education and technical vocational education and training (TVET) for national skill set development and entrepreneur development in Cambodia

Questions	Answers
With refer to the scope of work in the ToR, we think that the numbers of 65 working days over the period of about 6 months for the 4 key experts and other data collection staff is so small. It should be more working days	The Offerors have option to propose the number of working days allocated for each key staff according to its workplan in order to successfully deliver the outputs as required in the Terms of Reference.
This assignment is compilation of both primary and secondary datas in Phnom Penh and field visit to some provinces, how many provinces will be conducted for the field visits to collect the primary data and estimated the sampling from national and sub-national levels?	On the technical of data collection, the Offeror should be able to propose/estimate number of provinces and which provinces, sample size for the research.