Payment will be effected by bank transfer in the currency of contract.
45. Vendor Protest	45.1 UNDP's vendor protest procedure provides an opportunity for appeal to those persons or firms not awarded a contract through a competitive procurement process. Project Background

The Agreement of 21 March 2008 reached between Greek Cypriots and Turkish Cypriots under the auspices of the United Nations (UN), paved the way for the establishment of the Technical Committee on Cultural Heritage (TCCH), dedicated to the identification, promotion and protection of the rich and diverse cultural heritage of Cyprus. The TCCH is composed of an equal number of Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot experts. The TCCH works to provide a mutually acceptable mechanism for the implementation of practical measures for the proper preservation, physical protection and restoration (including research, study and survey) of the immovable cultural heritage of Cyprus. The work of the TCCH is under auspices of the UN and it constitutes an important tool for building confidence between the Turkish Cypriots and the Greek Cypriots. The TCCH is supported in its work by an Advisory Board (AB), which was established in 2009 and is composed of archaeologists, architects, art historians and town planners from both communities.

In 2012, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) initiated with the implementation of the European Union (EU) funded activity Support to Cultural Heritage Monuments of Great Importance for the communities in Cyprus – Phase 1 and since then it has continued with the successful implementation of the EU funded activities Support to Cultural Heritage Monuments of Great Importance in Cyprus – Phases 2, 3, 4 and 5. In May 2018, UNDP started the implementation of the new EU funded activity Support to Cultural Heritage Monuments of Great Importance in Cyprus – Phase 6.

Regulatory Framework

This heritage site is of great cultural significance thus proposed interventions must be compliant with relevant international conservation standards of United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), International Council for Monuments and Sites (ICOMOS), International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property (ICCROM) and International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN).

Conservation Philosophy

All conservation projects should aim to the conservation of the cultural heritage sites. Namely, conservation actions/works on each cultural heritage site will include the examination, treatment and preventive care of the building elements, with the least possible (minimum) intervention, aiming to safeguard its fabric in the long-term, protecting its special characteristics and elements (and especially of those most at risk), creating safety and safeguarding its heritage values. Treatment should ensure maximum stabilization, consolidation and/or reinforcement actions, if these are considered necessary, in order to achieve structural stability and durability. The proposed interventions should ensure the protection of the building fabric from weather conditions and other environmental factors. These interventions will deal also with rainwater management and accessibility issues, depending on the needs of each site. For any of these actions it is preferable that the traditional techniques and materials of same type as the originals will be used. The general philosophy of all interventions should be to safeguard the authenticity and integrity of the building by maintaining, conserving and restoring (instead of replacing and reconstructing) elements of the building when and where possible. It is expected that the interventions on each site will be decided and defined following detailed survey and investigation of the building, its assessment and analysis. The methodology of interventions might be modified if findings during the construction works alter the original hypotheses.

Conservation actions/works, namely specialized actions which aim to conserve the items at a known earlier state might be considered, further than the conservation actions, in case these are evaluated as necessary or highly beneficial and feasible (detailed scientific justification will be necessary) within the available budget. In case there are paintings, mosaics, historic plasters, frescoes, or any other specialized conservation subjects in any of the heritage sites, it is suggested to plan only for their stabilization and protection.

The general philosophy of conservation should aim towards:

- Optimum structural consolidation/ stabilization
- Minimum interventions necessary for the safeguarding of the values of the structures of the heritage site and their special elements (including the frescoes and mosaics).
- Cost effectiveness of interventions. Create safe accessibility to the sites including people with disabilities. Minimum intervention and reversibility must be the guidelines for any proposal.

Outputs of the Assignment

For the purposes of this RFP the consultant shall explain clearly and in detail the tasks that will be required in order to achieve the outputs described below. Tasks must be described in all detail in terms of inputs, methodologies to be used, as well as resources to be allocated (human, materials, outsourcing, equipment, etc.).

The required outputs are summarized below:

- Survey drawings/ Releve (complete and accurate measured drawings) of all structures on the site, including perimeter walls and any other elements within the plot. All structures should be also photographically documented in detail. The documentation of important structures on site (as the church) by three-dimensional digital methods is a requirement. Additional surveys, investigations, tests etc., including modeling for structural analysis that are considered necessary/ beneficial for the conservation of this site. The consultant shall clearly justify why they consider these necessary/ beneficial.
- Historical analysis of the site
- Condition assessment and statement of significance of the site and site's structures
- Conservation recommendations based on the condition assessment and the statement of significance. The rationale of the proposed interventions should be described in detail.
- Conservation designs in draft format including drawings/details, technical specifications, bills of quantities/estimates and maintenance action plan in draft format
- Conservation designs in final format including drawings/details, technical specifications, bills of quantities/estimates and recommended timelines of execution of conservation works; maintenance action plan in final format
- Supervision advices to UNDP during the works

The consultant can propose additional outputs. The need for additional outputs has to be clearly explained and supported.

THE REQUIRED OUTPUTS ARE FURTHER DESCRIBED BELOW:

OUTPUT-1: Architectural Survey/ Releve (measured drawings)

Complete architectural survey of the site and buildings/structures within the site including its boundary walls with detailed measurements (plans, elevations, sections, plan of the wider area including structures in the vicinity) and details of special elements (i.e. frescoes mapping by a conservator), construction details etc. Surveys should be executed accurately and in detail containing graphical representation of all construction/structural details, details of special elements and materials, etc. in a variety of scales according to the needs of each drawing and detail.

The consultants are responsible to ensure that all necessary measurements and important information regarding the site are recorded. Measurements and surveys must be of non-invasive nature unless otherwise permitted in writing by UNDP. No items shall be taken from the site.

If there is need to clear rubbish, remove items and gain access to higher elevations to better acquire measurements, this shall be under the responsibility of the consultant but not without prior notice to UNDP. In the case of areas which are difficult to access (due to safety, debris, vegetation etc.), these shall be arranged by the consultant in consultation with UNDP - cost reimbursable method will apply in this case.

The full documentation is mandatory for Output 1 to be considered complete.

Additionally, the full photographic documentation of the whole site is required and the documentation of important structures in site (as the church) by three-dimensional digital imaging methods (as 3D laser scanning), internally and externally, is also a requirement. The three-dimensional laser scanning method can be used for the production of the 2D AutoCAD drawings of the church also.

The three-dimensional digital survey is required for:

- Documentation purposes; creating a detailed archivable record prior to any intervention at a site
- For aiding the interpretation of the heritage site and contributing to the understanding of its development and its significance
- Contributing to the creation of 3D models for the creation of presentations and virtual tours for the public

Additional surveys, investigations, tests etc., including modeling for structural analysis that are considered necessary/ beneficial for the conservation of this site should be proposed and costed in the proposal. The consultant shall clearly justify why they consider these necessary/ beneficial.

Any tests and/or investigations required later during the designs shall not be accepted by UNDP.

OUTPUT-1 shall be submitted in three hard copies and three electronic copies (FLASHDISK). Reports must be on A4 paper.

Drawings must be submitted in:

- AutoCAD drawing file format. Included in the electronic deliverable should be the .ctb file (which defines the plot style of the drawings).
- Pdf and Jpg format in scale (including north arrow). Each drawing should be on a separate pdf/jpg. Pdf/jpgs should be created directly from Autocad by choosing "print to pdf/jpg". They shouldn't be scanned from hard-copies to PDF/JPG format in scale.
- Hard copies of the drawings in scale (including north arrow).
 - A list of all the drawings submitted, their scale, and what they present (a type of table of contents of drawings).
 - Drawings should follow the "GUIDELINES FOR DESIGN PHASE DOCUMENTS and DRAWINGS.pdf", which will be shared with the successful team after contract signature.

Minimum drawing requirements are: (i) plans for every floor level including roof, (ii) ceiling plan, (iii) all necessary sections in order to document all the interior elevations, and (iv) elevations of every facade of the building/s (including interior facades in the case of interior courtyards), (v) plan, facades, sections and details of perimeter walls and other elements in the limits of the plot, v) a plan documenting the different types of floors (material description etc.). Special elements should also be documented in detail in a larger design scale. All drawings should include measurements and description of building materials.

The photographic documentation must be submitted in:

- JPG format but each photo shouldn't be a heavy document. Photos should be organized in subfolders according to the locations taken.
- A keymap of the monument with the location and direction of each photograph in AutoCAD drawing file format (including .ctb file), pdf/jpg format in scale (including north arrow) and hard copy.

The 3D laser scanning documentation must be submitted in:

- Archivable format (including metadata)
- 3D model with imaging
- 2D CAD Dataset of all the main facades of the church, externally and internally, as well as ceiling and floor elevations to be submitted in dwg format.
- Orthophoto images of all the main facades of the church, externally and internally, as well as ceiling and floor elevations in TIF format.

PRESENTATION: Stakeholder Presentation of Submitted Outputs

Consultants will present Output 1 in a PowerPoint presentation at a stakeholders' meeting which will be arranged by UNDP. The Outputs and presentation material must be provided 3 days before the presentation by the consultants to UNDP.

Consultants will be responsible for taking notes of the main points of discussion during the presentation, submit the minutes for approval within maximum 48 hours to UNDP and wait for UNDP and TCCH/ AB feedback. This feedback/approval will be provided by UNDP in maximum ONE (1) calendar week.

OUTPUT-1A: Final Architectural Survey/ Releve (measured drawings)

Based on the feedback obtained from UNDP/TCCH, the consultant shall submit a revised/modified version of this output. The final OUTPUT submission is required by the consultant ONE (1) calendar week upon receipt of the feedback by UNDP.

OUTPUT-2: Historical analysis, statement of significance and condition assessment of the site

Consultants shall carry out a historic analysis of the site in order to: (i) trace the original date of the construction of the site, and other important dates of the construction, (ii) trace and date later interventions on the building, (iii) historically support the building's analysis and conservation proposal/s, (iv) change of use over time, and (v) identify natural disasters/ phenomena that influenced the site historically (seismic, flood, landslide etc.). The historical analysis should be conducted through bibliographic and archival means. Oral testimonies could be taken into consideration. All information should be consistently and correctly referenced. Poor bibliographic/ literature review ignoring international methodologies and protocol on research procedures will not be accepted. The analysis can be enhanced with sketches and pictures. Narratives must be written in good English and must be proof-read before submission.

Furthermore, the consultants are expected to provide a statement of significance. The statement of significance should provide a clear, concise and distilled summary of the cultural significance of the place (around 1000 words or more - in the case of large and complex sites – the scale of the statement should be proportionate to the scale of the project), highlighting the aspects of significance that are most important. Cultural significance is considered a monument's value for past, present or future generations. Aim of the statement of significance is to assess and understand the particular nature of the significance of a monument (expressing simply why the place is of value), the extent of the monument's fabric to which the significance relates (special elements) and the level of importance of that significance. Any heritage values are accepted (e.g. historic, architectural, archaeological, religious, technological, scientific, social, communal, artistic, etc.) as long as they are clearly explained and supported. In considering a monument's significance issues of setting and context (incl. important views, grave markers, other structures and landscape features and contents of the monument (fixtures and objects) should be considered.

The statement of significance should be supported by sufficient graphic material (well-captioned photographs and other illustrations) and bibliographic/ archival sources cited in a consistent manner. For the support of the statement of significance the historical analysis or description of the site not be repeated but they should be cross-referenced. The statement of significance can be in the format of a list or of a paragraph.

Additionally, consultants must elaborate a condition assessment for the site and each structure, and the Panagia Kanakaria Monastery Complex as a whole including its courtyard and its perimeter boundaries-walls, yard etc. The condition assessment must include special elements including building and decorative details, objects and other items identified and found onsite.

Narrative accompanied by pathologies identified should be present on a full set of drawings. Risks and threats noted regarding the structures, the site and their surroundings must be clearly identified and documented.

Additionally, a report by the conservator for the full description of the present condition of the frescoes and mosaics including assessment and analysis of the pathology of the asset (description of damage and identification of the cause/s). This should be accompanied by diagrams and/or photographs. Main threats to the condition of the item should be highlighted.

OUTPUT-2 shall be submitted in three hard copies and three electronic copies (FLASHDISK). Hard copies of the reports must be submitted in A4 paper size except only if considered necessary to print in A3 size. Electronic copies of the reports should be submitted in word and pdf format.

The significance of the site and its elements, their condition and the identified risks and threats as these were identified in Output 2 must be taken into account.

The descriptions of the interventions must be supported by a clearly explained rationale supplemented by photographs & sketches. At this stage there is no need to prepare detailed implementation drawings, technical specifications and bills of quantities (which constitute part of Output 4). Narratives must be written in good English and must be proof-read before submission.

Additionally, the conservator should provide a report with recommendations for the conservation and safeguarding of the frescoes and mosaics. Recommendations should include proposed appropriate treatment methods and materials for treating any identified damage and for reducing or eliminating the causes of the damage. The following items should be highlighted by the conservators if required: (i) Remedial work, (ii) Emergency treatment, (iii) Further analysis work or investigation required, (iv) Further monitoring necessary to inform treatment proposal.

OUTPUT-3 shall be submitted in three hard copies and three electronic copies (FLASHDISK). Hard copies of the reports must be submitted in A4 paper size except only if considered necessary to print in A3 size. Electronic copies of the reports should be submitted in word and pdf format.

OUTPUT-4: Conservation designs in draft format

Based on the feedback obtained from the previous outputs, draft designs will be elaborated.

Consultants shall prepare draft conservation designs that will include the following:

- Proposed interventions drawings. All proposed actions should be clearly illustrated in a set of architectural drawings. The proposal drawings should illustrate the desired result of the proposed interventions. Within this framework the exact position, dimensions and materials of proposed new elements should be illustrated. The quantities identified in the BoQ should be easily identifiable on the drawings.
- Particular specifications
- Bill of quantities with cost estimates. As mentioned above the quantities identified in the BoQ should be easily identifiable on the drawings and in case that it is requested the quantities should be justified by the consultants.
- In addition to the above it is required by the consultants to provide summary lists for:
 - o All proposed interventions, titled "Draft summary of all proposed interventions"
 - o All new materials proposed for the interventions, titled "All materials to be used during interventions". Each material should make reference to the drawings, details and particular specifications where it is found.
- Estimated timeframe for implementation of the proposed conservation works.
- A recurring preventive maintenance schedule with cost estimate. The schedule should clearly present proposed maintenance actions and frequency of actions proposed. Monitoring inspections should also be included in the schedule. Templates used for inspection/ inspection checklists with detailed lists of maintenance categories and works per recurrence should also be submitted.

All submitted documents should be cross-referenced. The overall consistency between the drawings, the Particular Specifications and the BoQ is the responsibility of the consultant.

OUTPUT-4 shall be submitted in three hard copies in scale and three electronic copies in FLASHDISK (excluding the priced BoQ). The priced BoQ will be submitted separately in one hardcopy and one copy electronic copy (FLASHDISC).

1. Drawings must be submitted in AutoCAD drawing file format (including the .ctb plot style file), PDF and JPG format in scale (each drawing should be on a separate pdf/jpg and pdf/jpgs should be created directly from Autocad by choosing "print to pdf/jpg", not scanned from hard-copies to PDF/JPG format in scale), and hard-copies of the drawings in scale.
2. All electronic files (not hardcopies) of AutoCAD and PDF/JPG drawings must be submitted with a) English legends (in one folder) and b) Turkish legends (in another folder). This applies only for the legends and not all texts on the document (which must be limited to only include a T.S. code). The legend is the area where the UNDP, EU and TCCH logos and titles of drawings are placed as shown in the "GUIDELINES FOR DESIGN PHASE DOCUMENTS and DRAWINGS.pdf", which will be shared with the successful team after contract signature. Hardcopies should be submitted with English legends.
3. Technical specifications should be submitted in Word. Narratives must be written in good English and must be proof-read before submission. In the case of proposed interventions that require the involvement of a conservator and / or archaeologist, technical specifications must state clearly whether specific works should be done "by" the conservator/archaeologist or only "In the presence of a conservator / archaeologist...".
4. Bills of quantities and estimates shall be in Excel. The Final priced and blank BOQ will be printed only once in hardcopy and one copy electronic copy (FLASHDISC).
5. The timeline of works must be in the form of an excel spreadsheet.
6. Maintenance schedule and related documents should be submitted in in word and excel format electronically and printed in A4 paper size.

Stakeholder presentation and feedback on submitted outputs

Consultants will present the Output 4 in PowerPoint to a stakeholders' meeting which will be arranged by UNDP. This Output and the presentation material must be provided 5 days in advance to the presentation by the consultants to UNDP.

Consultants will be responsible for taking notes of the main points of discussion during the presentation, submit for approval within maximum 48 hours to UNDP and wait for the final feedback.

According to the provided feedback the consultants should proceed to all necessary modifications to the submitted outputs accordingly.

This feedback/approval will be given in maximum TWO (2) calendar weeks, which shouldn't be considered extra to the six (6) calendar months. This should be shown and counted in the work plans.

OUTPUT-4A: The finalized conservation design should be also submitted, marked as 'FINAL', stamped and signed by the architect and civil/structural engineer, in three hard copies in scale and three electronic copies in FLASHDISK (excluding the priced BoQ).

The priced BoQ will be submitted separately in one hardcopy and one copy electronic copy (FLASHDISC).

Additionally:

- the final approved set of drawings shall be translated into Turkish/Greek
- extensive summary of the particular specifications shall be made in Turkish/Greek
- extensive summary of the unpriced bills of quantities shall be made in Turkish/Greek

These shall be used for submitting to the relevant technical chambers.

Services for supervision advices will be provided to UNDP during the conservation works of the Panagia Kanakaria monastery which may be implemented in the second half of 2020 and 2021. It is expected that up to 8 days per month of advices service will be required. A day is taken as 8 hours of time allocated to the works and time spent specifically for the works.

The consultant should take into account the Supervision Advices details in Appendix 2 and elaborate a methodology and define the inputs to be given.

For quantifying the estimated input necessary for advices, 8 days per month for 12 months can be calculated.

In the case that during the works it will be identified that necessary documents according to the ToR and the selected proposal were omitted during the design stage, the consultant will be obliged to provide them at no cost to UNDP.

Timelines of the Assignment

The assignment for the design phase (outputs 1 to 5) must be completed within six (6) calendar months starting from the date of the contract signature.

The consultant shall prepare and submit detailed work-plan. The work-plan should show 'calendar weeks'. Outputs must be planned and submissions falling on public holidays and mandatory breaks must be shown on the work-plan.

The consultant should include in their work plan the weeks following each submission of draft output, taking into account the time needed for receiving feedback and the time available for the final submission of each output as these are mentioned above. which shouldn't be considered extra to the six (6) calendar months. This should be shown and counted in the work-plans. The duration of the assignment does not change due to the above.

Delays in submitting the final output will result in the application of liquidated damages for delay at a rate of Euro 500 per day of delay beyond the end of the six (6th) month from contract signature.

For the Output 5, contract amendment will be made to extend the duration of the contract to coincide with the timeline of the works contract.
