

UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME
UNDP Somalia

Terms of Reference (TORs)

Individual Contractor (International)
Photographer (IC Framework Agreement)

A. Project Title: Communications Unit

B. Project Description

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is the UN's global development network. Its mandate is to end poverty, build democratic governance, rule of law, and inclusive institutions. UNDP advocates for change and connects countries to knowledge, experience and resources to help people build a better life for themselves and promotes technical and investment cooperation among nations through provision of expert advice, training and grants support to developing countries for long term benefits.

With a focus on external communications, UNDP Somalia Communications Unit provides support to the Country Office programmes and projects to raise awareness of UNDPs work and, advocate for related issues. In this regard, the Unit implements the corporate communications strategy, designs, manages and facilitates the implementation of the Country Office communications strategy with a view to influence the development agenda, to promote public and media outreach and to mobilize political and financial support for UNDP through production of high-quality text, video and photo products for a wide range of audience including donors, partners and the general public.

Within this context, UNDP seeks to enter into Individual Contractor's Framework Agreement/Long-Term Agreement with a qualified Photographer to facilitate and expedite the process by which UNDP can obtain required services at short notice.

C. Scope of Work

The objective of this assignment is to produce photographs and captions for UNDP products, social media and other uses as required. The selected candidate must be willing to travel to Somalia. Working closely with the Communications and Project teams, the photographer will undertake the following tasks:

- Capture high-resolution images of UNDP activities, beneficiaries of UNDP interventions and their communities, infrastructure and other UNDP support across the country and other subjects are required;
- Provide edited jpegs of the highest possible quality for each shoot with detailed captions covering where, what, who, when and background on the issue/UNDP support;

- Provide all RAW images shot during all assignments;
- Download images to external drives provided by UNDP or submit them via FTP.

Copyright

- UNDP shall be granted non-exclusive worldwide rights in perpetuity for all images shot while on assignment, including the right to share images at no cost with other UN organisations/partners and media houses;
- UNDP reserves the right to stipulate for certain images and for certain shoots where there are issues of personal welfare/safety or cultural considerations that approval must be sought before the consultant uses the image for any purpose other than submitting it to UNDP.

Guidelines on UN photo usage can also be accessed using the following link;

Warranties, Consent and Intellectual Property

1. The Individual Contractor represents and warrants that he/she has not, and undertakes that he/she shall not infringe any third-party intellectual property rights in performing any services pursuant to the proposed contract. The Applicant further represents and warrants that he/she shall perform the activities pursuant to the UNDP photo policy and guidelines including obtaining written consent when required, including from survivors of violence and from the legal guardians of children under 18 years of age.
2. The Contractor shall indemnify, defend, and hold and save harmless, UNDP, and its officials, agents and employees, from and against all suits, proceedings, claims, demands, losses and liability of any kind or nature brought by any third party against UNDP, including, but not limited to, all litigation costs and expenses, attorney's fees, settlement payments and damages, based on, arising from, or relating to:
  - a) allegations or claims that the possession of or use by UNDP of any patented device, any copyrighted material, or any other goods, property or services provided or licensed to UNDP under the terms of the Contract, in whole or in part, separately or in a combination contemplated by the Contractor's published specifications therefor, or otherwise specifically approved by the Contractor, constitutes an infringement of any patent, copyright, trademark, or other intellectual property right of any third party; or,
  - b) any acts or omissions of the Contractor, or of any subcontractor or anyone directly or indirectly employed by them in the performance of the Contract, which give rise to legal liability to anyone not a party to the Contract, including, without limitation, claims and liability in the nature of a claim for workers' compensation.
3. The indemnity set forth in point 2(a) above, shall not apply to:
  - a) A claim of infringement resulting from the Contractor's compliance with specific written instructions by UNDP directing a change in the specifications for the goods, property, materials, equipment or supplies to be or used, or directing a manner of performance of the Contract or requiring the use of specifications not normally used by the Contractor; or
  - b) A claim of infringement resulting from additions to or changes in any goods, property, materials equipment, supplies or any components thereof furnished under the Contract if UNDP or another party acting under the direction of UNDP made such changes.

4. UNDP shall advise the Contractor about any such suits, proceedings, claims, demands, losses or liability within a reasonable period of time after having received actual notice thereof. The Contractor shall have sole control of the defense of any such suit, proceeding, claim or demand and of all negotiations in connection with the settlement or compromise thereof, except with respect to the assertion or defense of the privileges and immunities of UNDP or any matter relating thereto, for which only UNDP itself is authorized to assert and maintain. UNDP shall have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such suit, proceeding, claim or demand by independent counsel of its own choosing.
5. In the event the use by UNDP of any goods, property or services provided or licensed to UNDP by the Contractor, in whole or in part, in any suit or proceeding, is for any reason enjoined, temporarily or permanently, or is found to infringe any patent, copyright, trademark or other intellectual property right, or in the event of a settlement, is enjoined, limited or otherwise interfered with, then the Contractor, at its sole cost and expense, shall, promptly, either:
  - a) procure for UNDP the unrestricted right to continue using such goods or services provided to UNDP;
  - b) replace or modify the goods or services provided to UNDP, or part thereof, with the equivalent or better goods or services, or part thereof, that is non-infringing; or,
  - c) refund to UNDP the full price paid by UNDP for the right to have or use such goods, property or services, or part thereof.

D. Expected Outputs and Deliverables

If and when any of the above services will be required, UNDP and the Contractor will agree on work output (within the scope of the LTA), number of working days necessary and target due dates prior to commencement of work. Detailed specifications for each individual assignment will be given to the selected Contractor as and when their services are required. The call-off mechanism (trigger) for each assignment will be a written request from the Communications Specialist to the Contractor.

K. Criteria for Selection of the Best Offer

Evaluation Process:

Candidates will be reviewed based on required skills and experience stated above and based on the technical evaluation criteria outlined below. Candidates will be reviewed based on cumulative scoring. When using the weighted scoring method, the award of the contract will be made to the candidate whose offer has been evaluated and determined as

- a) Being responsive/compliant/acceptable; and
- b) Having attained the highest score out of a pre-determined set of weighted technical and financial criteria specific to the solicitation where technical criteria weights 70% and financial criteria/proposal weights 30%.

Technical Qualification Evaluation Criteria - (70% of total evaluation, i.e., 70 points)

Technical Evaluation Criteria	Maximum obtainable score
Education	10
Quality of sample photo edits from at least 3 shoots with focus on technique, creativity, ability to convey a message/story and captioning	40
Proven experience – reference will be made to CV and submitted work samples	20
Total Obtainable score	70

Only candidates obtaining a minimum of 49 points (70% of the total technical points) shall be considered for the financial evaluation.

Financial Evaluation Criteria (30% of total evaluation; Maximum 30 points)

The maximum number of points assigned to the financial proposal is allocated to the lowest price proposal. All other proposals receive points in inverse proportion. The following formula will be used to evaluate financial proposal:

$p = y (\mu/z)$ , where:

p = points for the financial proposal being evaluated

y = maximum number of points for the financial proposal

$\mu$  = price of the lowest priced proposal

z = price of the proposal being evaluated

L. Contract Award

Candidate obtaining the highest combined score in the combined score of technical and financial evaluation will be considered technically qualified and will be offered to enter into contract with UNDP.

M. Annexes to the TOR

- Annex I - The Individual Contract template and its General Terms and Conditions, which you would be expected to sign in the event you are the selected Offeror in this procurement process.
- Annex II - Offeror's Letter to UNDP confirming Interest and Availability for the Individual Contract including financial proposal template
