| Q1               | We are very interested in the job offer you have recently advertised (Photographer, Animator, Videographer and Graphic Designer). We were hoping to find out a little more about the posts. We noticed that jobs are Individual contractors. Can we apply these posts as a company instead of Individual? | A1            | No. You cannot apply as a company. As stipulated in the Terms of Reference, the positions advertised are for individual contractors. |
