TERMS OF REFERENCE

Name of the Project	Kamyab Jawan: Youth Empowerment Programme
Unit	Crisis Prevention and Recovery Unit
Consulting Services	Senior Psychologist for the Reintegration of Excluded Youth
Location	Islamabad

1. Background:

The Youth Empowerment Program is a multi-pronged strategy aimed at creating pathways for the economic empowerment and constructive engagement of youth in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Sindh. Since 2016, the Program has made considerable headway in equipping young people with the necessary skills and knowledge to become successful in an increasingly competitive market environment and promote social cohesion in their respective communities by assuming leadership roles.

Since 2018, UNDP's Youth Empowerment Programme has been working on the social and economic empowerment of vulnerable youth in prisons and educational institutions across Pakistan. The projects employ YEP's standard framework for young people's development based on the provision of education/critical skills, market informed livelihood skills trainings, and constructive engagement opportunities. The immediate objective of these interventions is to provide opportunities for social uplift and economic growth in a rapidly changing environment; the larger objective is to use the resultant empowerment as a means of reducing young people's vulnerability to involvement in violence and conflict, an outcome of disenfranchisement and marginalization due to asymmetrical power relations and exclusivist political and economic institutions.

As part of its wider efforts to understand young people's vulnerability to involvement in violence and conflict, YEP requires the services of a qualified Psychologist with demonstrable experience of working with vulnerable youth to create a knowledge base on the determinants of young people's involvement in anti-social activities. In addition, the Psychologist will be required to measure the impact of project interventions in terms of creating a positive outlook towards future social and economic prospects. In this regard, the consultant will work specifically with young persons in prisons and universities to support YEP's vulnerable youth empowerment pillar.

2. Objective of the Assignment:

This assignment contributes to UNDP/YEP's wider efforts to collect empirical data on young people's vulnerability to involvement in violence and conflict. In this regard, it dovetails with YEP's ongoing work to understand the deep structure of this vulnerability through insights from behavioral sciences and psychology. The assignment will help in mapping the factors that contribute to increased criminality or tendency for anti-social behaviours among young people involved in petty offences. In this regard, a deeper scientific understanding will support YEP in designing and implementing targeted interventions aimed at social and economic rehabilitation of this marginalized segment of the youth population.

Similarly, the Psychologist will support YEP's work with youth in universities with a specific focus on interventions to provide mental health support to young female students. The work will be done under YEP's women and peacebuilding pillar and support YEP in understanding the triggers behind women's involvement in disruptive social activities aimed at undermining peaceful co-existence and respect for diversity. Through an excavation of the factors behind women's vulnerability to involvement in these activities, the Psychologist will provide much needed counselling support to affected individuals, provide mentorship support to aspiring female psychologists in the target universities, and advise on the necessary institutional reforms to promote respect for diversity and tolerance of different world views on university campuses in Pakistan.

Scope of Work

The consultant will work to develop the following deliverables during the specified time:

- Design gender sensitive psychological tools for identifying and assessing the determinants of young people vulnerability to involvement in anti-social activities.
- Train and provide oversight to UNDP IP staff using the tools to collect data from young people in target prisons and universities.
- Write a detailed analytical report on the findings of counselling sessions with selected youth in universities and prisons.
- Present research findings to Government officials, UNDP, and IP staff members for feedback and recommendations for positive institutional reforms.
- Based on research and counselling in prisons and universities, provide recommendations on the necessary institutional reforms to reduce young people's vulnerability to involvement in anti-social activities.

Accordingly, nothing within or relating to the Contract shall establish the relationship of employer and employee, or of principal and agent, between UNDP and the Individual contractor. The officials, representatives, employees or subcontractors of UNDP and of the Individual contractor, if any, shall not be considered in any respect as being the employees or agents of the other, and UNDP and the Individual contractor shall be solely responsible for all claims arising out of or relating to its engagement of such persons or entities.

2. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT: In General: The Individual contractor shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to UNDP in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Contract. Should any authority external to UNDP seek to impose any instructions on the Contract regarding the Individual contractor’s performance under the Contract, the Individual contractor shall promptly notify UNDP and shall provide all reasonable assistance required by UNDP. The Individual contractor shall not take any action in respect of its performance of the Contract or otherwise related to its obligations under the Contract that may adversely affect the interests of UNDP, and the Individual contractor shall perform its obligations under the Contract with the fullest regard to the interests of UNDP. The Individual contractor warrants that it has not and shall not offer any direct or indirect benefit arising from or related to the performance of the Contract or the award thereof to any representative, official, employee or other agent of UNDP. The Individual contractor shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations bearing upon the performance of its obligations under the Contract. In the performance of the Contract the Individual contractor shall comply with the standards of conduct set in the Secretary General’s Bulletin ST/SGB/2002/9 of 18 June 2002, entitled “Regulations Governing the Status, Basic Rights and Duties of Officials other than Secretariat Officials, and Expert on Mission”. In particular, the Individual contractor shall not engage in any conduct that would constitute sexual exploitation or sexual abuse, as defined in that bulletin.

The Individual contractor acknowledges and agrees that any breach of any of the provisions hereof shall constitute a breach of an essential term of the Contract, and, in addition to any other legal rights or remedies available to any person, shall give rise to grounds for termination of the Contract. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the right of UNDP to refer any alleged breach of the foregoing standards of conduct to the relevant national authorities for appropriate legal action.

3. TITLE RIGHTS, COPYRIGHTS, PATENTS AND OTHER PROPRIETARY RIGHTS: Title to any equipment and supplies that may be furnished by UNDP to the Individual contractor for the performance of any obligations under the Contract shall rest with UNDP, and any such equipment shall be returned to UNDP at the conclusion of the Contract or when no longer needed by the Individual contractor. Such equipment, when returned to UNDP, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Individual contractor, subject to normal wear and tear, and the Individual contractor shall be liable to compensate UNDP for any damage or degradation of the equipment that is beyond normal wear and tear.

UNDP shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights, including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights and trademarks, with regard to products, processes, inventions, ideas, know-how or documents and other materials which the Individual contractor has developed for UNDP under the Contract and which bear a direct relation to or are produced or prepared or collected in consequence of, or during the course of, the performance of the Contract, and the Individual contractor

The terms or conditions of any supplemental undertakings, licences or other forms of Contract concerning any goods or services to be provided under the Contract shall not be valid and enforceable against UNDP nor in any way shall constitute an Contract by UNDP thereto, unless any such undertakings, licences or other forms of Contract are the subject of a valid written undertaking by UNDP. No modification or change in the Contract shall be valid and enforceable against UNDP unless provided by means of a valid written amendment to the Contract signed by the Individual contractor and an authorized official or appropriate contracting authority of UNDP.

UNDP may, in its sole discretion, reject any proposed subcontractor or require such subcontractor's removal without having to give any justification therefore, and such rejection shall not entitle the Individual contractor to claim any delays in the performance, or to assert any excuses for the non-performance, of any of its obligations under the Contract. The Individual contractor acknowledges and agrees that none of the insurance arrangements the Individual contractor may make shall, in any way, be construed to limit the Individual contractor's liability arising under or relating to the Contract.

11. ENCUMBRANCES AND LIENS: The Individual contractor shall not cause or permit any lien, attachment or other encumbrance by any person to be placed on file or to remain on file in any public office or on file with UNDP against any monies due to the Individual contractor or to become due for any work donor or against any goods supplied or materials furnished under the Contract, or by reason of any other claim or demand against the Individual contractor.

Not more than fifteen (15) days following the provision of such notice of force majeure or other changes in conditions or occurrence, the Individual contractor shall also submit a statement to UNDP of estimated expenditures that will likely be incurred for the duration of the change in conditions or the event. On receipt of the notice or notices required hereunder, UNDP shall take such action as it considers, in its sole discretion, to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances, including the granting to the Individual contractor of a reasonable extension of time in which to perform any obligations under the Contract.

The period of notice shall be five (5) days in the case of Contracts for a total period of less than two (2) months and fourteen (14) days in the case of contracts for a longer period. The initiation of conciliation or arbitral proceedings, as provided below, shall not be deemed to be a "cause" for or otherwise to be in itself a termination of the Contract. possession of the Individual contractor and in which UNDP has or may be reasonably expected to acquire an interest.

In the event of any termination of the Contract, UNDP shall only be liable to pay the Individual contractor compensation on a pro rata basis for no more than the actual amount of work performed to the satisfaction of UNDP in accordance with the requirements of the Contract. Additional costs incurred by UNDP resulting from the termination of the Contract by the Individual contractor may be withheld from any amount otherwise due to the Individual contractor from UNDP..

In the event any governmental authority refuses to recognize the exemptions of the United Nations from such taxes, restrictions, duties or charges, the Individual contractor shall immediately consult with UNDP to determine a mutually acceptable procedure. UNDP shall have no liability for taxes, duties or other similar charges payable by the Individual contractor in respect of any amounts paid to the Individual contractor under this Contract, and the Individual contractor acknowledges that UNDP will not issue any statements of earnings to the Individual contractor in respect of any such payments.

16. AUDITS AND INVESTIGATIONS: Each invoice paid by UNDP shall be subject to a post-payment audit by auditors, whether internal or external, of UNDP or by other authorized and qualified agents of UNDP at any time during the term of the Contract and for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or prior termination of the Contract. UNDP shall be entitled to a refund from the Individual contractor for any amounts shown by such audits to have been paid by UNDP other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract.

The Parties further acknowledge and agree that, for these purposes, a cause of action shall accrue when the breach actually occurs, or, in the case of latent defects, when the injured Party knew or should have known all of the essential elements of the cause of action, or in the case of a breach of warranty, when tender of delivery is made, except that, if a warranty extends to future performance of the goods or any process or system and the discovery of the breach consequently must await the time when such goods or other process or system is ready to perform in accordance with the requirements of the Contract, the cause of action accrues when such time of future performance actually begins,

19. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES: Nothing in or relating to the Contract shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, including its subsidiary organs.
