Project name:	Human Rights for Ukraine (HR4U) Project
Starting date of assignment:	December 2020
End date (if applicable):	on or before February 28, 2021
Management arrangements:	reporting to the Human Rights for Ukraine Project Coordinator

Selection method:	two-step procedure with the highest number of points in a combined assessment of both technical qualifications and the price proposal

1. BACKGROUND

Human Rights for Ukraine (HR4U) Project (2019 – 2023) funded by the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs and implemented by UNDP Ukraine is a nation-scale 5-year initiative. The project is an integral part of UNDP democratic governance portfolio that strengthens accountable and responsive public institutions and trust in state-society relations, respect of the rule of law and human rights, and inclusive political processes and social policies, with a specific focus on women, youth and disadvantaged groups.

The Project's overall goal is to promote human rights through strengthening capacities of the national actors to effectively promote, protect and observe human rights and integrate human rights-based approach (HRBA) into the national and local policies all over Ukraine including conflict area. The project is aimed at increasing the capacity of the National Human Rights Institution and promoting human rights initiatives among all national stakeholders, including core duty-bearers in the legislative and executive branches, sub-national and local authorities, and civil society organizations. Among the project objectives there are addressing the needs of the conflict-affected population to exercise their rights, including international advocacy and work with conflict-affected (including internally displaced) men and women, and other vulnerable groups.

To promote human rights, social cohesion and national unity, the HR4U Project cooperates with the Mission of the President of Ukraine in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea. The Mission became the first state authority since the beginning of armed conflict delegated to develop a framework for transitional justice. The Transitional Justice Framework is a document that defines a national model of transitional justice for Ukraine. It will establish the principles ("road map") of state policy for the protection and restoration of human rights and fundamental freedoms during armed conflict and temporary occupation of the Autonomous Republic of Crimea and the city of Sevastopol, Ukraine, as well as tackling its adverse impact on population.

In September 2020, the Working Group on Reintegration of Temporarily Occupied Territories finalised the draft of Transitional Justice Framework for Ukraine ("TJ Framework"). Development and launch of the effective communication campaign on post-conflict settlement and transitional justice, and building a dialogue between the authorities and men and women throughout Ukraine require evidence based and assessment of the opinions and expectations in this regard.

2. MAIN OBJECTIVE OF THE ASSIGNMENT

The overall goal of the assignment is to conduct a national representative survey accounting for disaggregation by parameters of region (each oblast), gender, age, urban/rural residence. The survey is expected to cover the following broad themes through relevant question blocks:

- Attitudes and perceptions to key statements and principles underlined in the Transitional Justice Framework for Ukraine mentioned above.
- Questions regarding effective and appropriate focuses of a comprehensive communication campaign to promote the Transitional Justice Framework in Ukraine – in order to test public perceptions on what are the best communication options to be applied to promoting human rights, social cohesion, and national unity in post-conflict regulation.
- Identification of effective information channels and mechanisms of increasing awareness on transitional justice, i.e. perceptions of the best channels for the citizens to receive information on transitional justice and post-conflict regulation.

3. SCOPE OF WORK AND EXPECTED OUTPUTS

The above-mentioned will be achieved through the following steps.
