TERMS OF REFERENCE1. BACKGROUND.

In the last quarter of 2020, GLO.ACT Pakistan conducted a desk review limited scope study, of available literature, which aimed to gauge whether the government of Pakistan's national response to trafficking in persons (TIP) and smuggling of migrants (SOM) is gender-sensitive and human rights-based. The study also aimed to ensure that in rendering support to the government to implement the national response to trafficking in persons and smuggling of migrants, gender and human rights issues have a baseline from which to measure impact by the end of the project, as well as policy directions to ensure deliberate factoring in of measures to address gender and human rights gaps in implementation. Furthermore, an effective intervention follows a Human Rights based approach which acknowledges how human rights violations occur as part of the trafficking and smuggling cycles, that governments have a responsibility to protect and promote the rights of all persons within their jurisdiction, including non-citizens, and therefore have a legal obligation to work towards elimination of TIP and SOM.

The GLO.ACT project is piloting a Gender and Human Rights Tool which will be an important resource for developing the baseline. The findings of the baseline conducted in Phase-I and its resultant policy positions complements on-going initiatives at regional level that Pakistan is part of, such as the regional network of women champions in TIP and SOM (also supported by the GLO.ACT project). The study also informed Pakistan's national strategic framework and action plan scheduled for 2020/21.

As part of the plan, UNODC aims to conduct its phase II in-depth data collection process using multiple methods to obtain information from key stakeholders and affected population. With the help of primary data, this study will undertake a robust analysis to understand the different barriers facing women, girls, men, and boys. The study will further explore whether there exists a clarity of understanding amongst various stakeholders whether gender and human rights aspects have been integrated into the TIP/SOM agendas in Pakistan. The study will also engage stakeholders to identify relationship between gender inequality and drivers of TIP and SOM, as well as the role of women in combating TIP and SOM. The study will identify specific solutions to address the needs and concerns of women, men and girls and ensure they are included in policies and action plans.

2. MAIN OBJECTIVES, RESPONSABILITIES AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORK.

The purpose of the assignment is to conduct gender and human rights analysis of the Pakistan's TIP and SOM situation/response. This is phase II in which in-depth data collection process will be utilized using other research methodologies to obtain information from key stakeholders and affected populations.

3. SCOPE OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORKSpecific tasks to be performed by the consultant:

The evidence base for the study will be predominantly comprised of a variegated mix of qualitative research instruments, such as 1) desk review, 2) and Key Informant Interviews (KIIs) This evidence base will be strengthened and triangulated using further desk review. These diversified methods will inform the answers to the key questions of each indicator. Some key questions may be best answered by Key Informant Interviews, others through consultations, and others through desk review of existing literature. It is also possible that some key questions may not be answerable from the range of data collected.

Desk Review: Under Phase I, a quick desk review of the available literature, research reports, policy papers, research studies, academic literature, media reports on the subject, etc. have been conducted. However, the desk review will continue into Phase II in developing research tools and as part of the data triangulation once fieldwork is completed. Findings of the desk review will be incorporated into the final report.

Qualitative Key Informant Interviews (KIs): Qualitative KIs are an integral part of the proposed research methodology and will be conducted in three target locations. The interviews will be qualitative and semi-structured to offer more flexibility to interact with the respondents. The interview provides an opportunity to explore the reasons behind the person's answers and to verify the reliability of those answers with further questioning.

Data Collection and Analysis Process

Preparation for fieldwork: The fieldwork will be conducted in the urban centers of Islamabad, Lahore, and Karachi. A long list of government organizations, civil society organizations and individual experts will be compiled by the consultant and finalized after consultation with UNODC.

Data management and triangulation: The selection of methods is based on researcher's understanding of the context and its experience, and review of methodological literature. The combination of all these will guide the researcher to weigh strengths and weakness of each tool. Eventually, the researcher will seek to use triangulation, i.e. using several types of data in the study so that any weaknesses in one method to be offset by the strengths of another.

Expected Deliverables:

Under these tasks, the consultant shall deliver the following outputs:

- In-depth data collection using multiple methods to obtain information from key stakeholders and affected population.
- A robust analysis to understand the different barriers facing women, girls, men, and boys.
- Explore whether there exists a clarity of understanding amongst stakeholders whether gender and human rights aspects have been integrated into the TIP/SOM agendas in Pakistan.
- Engage stakeholders to identify relationship between gender inequality and drivers of TIP and SOM, as well as the role of women in combating TIP and SOM.
- Identify specific solutions to address the needs and concerns of women, men and girls and ensure they are included in policies and action plans.
- A detailed report after data analysis and triangulation. The size of the final report will be around 35-40 pages (excluding annexes and executive summary).

The Consultant will present the results to UNODC HTMS team from time to time to share the progress of activities under this contract and certification that the works, tasks, assignment have been satisfactorily performed.

refund from the Individual contractor for any amounts shown by such audits to have been paid by UNDP other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract.

The Individual contractor acknowledges and agrees that, from time to time, UNDP may conduct investigations relating to any aspect of the Contract or the award thereof, the obligations performed under the Contract, and the operations of the Individual contractor generally relating to performance of the Contract. The right of UNDP to conduct an investigation and the Individual contractor's obligation to comply with such an investigation shall not lapse upon expiration or prior termination of the Contract. The Individual contractor shall provide its full and timely cooperation with any such inspections, post-payment audits or investigations. Such cooperation shall include, but shall not be limited to, the Individual contractor's obligation to make available its personnel and any relevant documentation for such purposes at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions and to grant to UNDP access to the Individual contractor's premises at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions in connection with such access to the Individual contractor's personnel and relevant documentation. The Individual contractor shall require its agents, including, but not limited to, the Individual contractor's attorneys, accountants or other advisers, to reasonably cooperate with any inspections, post-payment audits or investigations carried out by UNDP hereunder.

17. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES:

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT: UNDP and the Individual contractor shall use their best efforts to amicably settle any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of the Contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof. Where the parties wish to seek such an amicable settlement through conciliation, the conciliation shall take place in accordance with the Conciliation Rules then obtaining of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law ("UNCITRAL"), or according to such other procedure as may be agreed between the parties in writing.

ARBITRATION: Any dispute, controversy or claim between the parties arising out of the Contract, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, unless settled amicably, as provided above, shall be referred by either of the parties to arbitration in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules then obtaining. The decisions of the arbitral tribunal shall be based on general principles of international commercial law. For all evidentiary questions, the arbitral tribunal shall be guided by the Supplementary Rules Governing the Presentation and Reception of Evidence in International Commercial Arbitration of the International Bar Association, 28 May 1983 edition. The arbitral tribunal shall be empowered to order the return or destruction of goods or any property, whether tangible or intangible, or of any confidential information provided under the Contract, order the termination of the Contract, or order that any other protective measures be taken with respect to the goods, services or any other property, whether tangible or intangible, or of any confidential information provided under the Contract, as appropriate, all in accordance with the authority of the arbitral tribunal pursuant to Article 26 ("Interim Measures of Protection") and Article 32 ("Form and Effect of the Award") of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages. In addition, unless otherwise expressly provided in the Contract, the arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award interest in excess of the London Inter-Bank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") then prevailing, and any such interest shall be simple interest only. The parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such dispute, controversy or claim.

18. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES: Nothing in or relating to the Contract shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, including its subsidiary organs.
