

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL (RFP)

To All Interested and Qualified Firms	DATE: June 21, 2021
	REFERENCE: RFP/UNDPKEN/009/2021

Dear Sir / Madam:

We kindly request you to submit your Proposal to undertake a Broad analysis of the Potential Legal, Environmental and Human Rights Impacts of the LAPSET Projects in selected Counties.

Please be guided by the form attached hereto as Annex 2, in preparing your Proposal.

In the course of preparing and submitting your proposal, it shall remain your responsibility to ensure that it is submitted into the system before the deadline. The system will automatically block and not accept any bid after the deadline. Kindly ensure that supporting documents required are signed and in the .pdf format, and free from any virus or corrupted files.

It shall remain your responsibility to ensure that your quotation is submitted on or before the deadline indicated by UNDP in the eTendering system . Bids must be submitted in the online eTendering system in the following link: <https://etendering.partneragencies.org> using your username and password. If you have not registered in the system before, you can register now by logging in using username: event.guest password: why2change

and follow the registration steps as specified in the system user guide.

<https://www.undp.org/content/undp/en/home/procurement/business/resources-for-bidders.html>

Your proposal must be expressed in English, and valid for a minimum period of 120 days from the bid closing date. You are kindly requested to indicate whether your company intends to submit a Proposal by clicking on “Accept Invitation”.

Services proposed shall be reviewed and evaluated based on completeness and compliance of the Proposal and responsiveness with the requirements of the RFP and all other annexes providing details of UNDP requirements.

The Proposal that complies with all of the requirements, meets all the evaluation criteria and offers the best value for money shall be selected and awarded the contract. Any offer that does not meet the requirements shall be rejected.

Queries about this Request for Proposal can be directed to:

undp.kenya.procurement@undp.org

Any discrepancy between the unit price and the total price shall be re-computed by UNDP, and the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If the Service Provider does not accept the final price based on UNDP's re-computation and correction of errors, its Proposal will be rejected.

No price variation due to escalation, inflation, fluctuation in exchange rates, or any other market factors shall be accepted by UNDP after it has received the Proposal. At the time of Award of Contract or Purchase Order, UNDP reserves the right to vary (increase or decrease) the quantity of services and/or goods, by up to a maximum twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total offer, without any change in the unit price or other terms and conditions.

Any Contract or Purchase Order that will be issued as a result of this RFP shall be subject to the General Terms and Conditions indicated herein. The mere act of submission of a Proposal implies that the Service Provider accepts without question the General Terms and Conditions of UNDP in this link: <http://www.undp.org/content/undp/en/home/procurement/business/how-webuy.html>

Please be advised that UNDP is not bound to accept any Proposal, nor award a contract or Purchase Order, nor be responsible for any costs associated with a Service Providers preparation and submission of a Proposal, regardless of the outcome or the manner of conducting the selection process.

UNDP's vendor protest procedure is intended to afford an opportunity to appeal for persons or firms not awarded a Purchase Order or Contract in a competitive procurement process. In the event that you believe you have not been fairly treated, you can find detailed information about vendor protest procedures in the following link:

<http://www.undp.org/content/undp/en/home/operations/procurement/protestandsanctions/>

UNDP encourages every prospective Service Provider to prevent and avoid conflicts of interest, by disclosing to UNDP if you, or any of your affiliates or personnel, were involved in the preparation of the requirements, design, cost estimates, and other information used in this RFP. UNDP implements a zero tolerance on fraud and other proscribed practices, and is committed to preventing, identifying and addressing all such acts and practices against UNDP, as well as third parties involved in UNDP activities. UNDP expects its Service Providers to adhere to the UN Supplier Code of Conduct found in this link: http://www.un.org/depts/ptd/pdf/conduct_english.pdf Thank you and we look forward to receiving your Proposal.

Sincerely yours,

Taye Amssalu

This information pack should assist potential applicants to understand the work of OHCHR Kenya, what is involved in the role, how to apply, and the recruitment process.

A. Background

The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) is the leading UN entity on human rights with a unique mandate to promote and protect all human rights for all people. The United Nations human rights programme aims to ensure that the protection and enjoyment of human rights is a reality in the lives of all people. OHCHR also plays a crucial role in safeguarding the integrity of the three interconnected pillars of the United Nations – peace and security, human rights and development.

The OHCHR project seeks to undertake a broad analysis of the potential legal, environmental and human rights impacts of the LAPSSET project in selected counties, with an aim of identifying and promoting human rights-based solutions to assessed challenges, and supporting/empowering affected communities and environmental human rights defenders to participate in the identification and implementation of solutions, including through environmental laws, policies and actions.

B. Objective of the Consultancy

Under the guidance and direct supervision of the OHCHR Senior Human Rights Adviser and working closely with the OHCHR Human Rights Specialist the consultancy aims to:-

1. Review of the legal and policy framework for human rights and the environment in Kenya, and their application to the LAPSSET project.
2. Interpretation of data on key environmental and human rights challenges (and opportunities) from the LAPSSET program and the impact of the project on the identified communities in focus counties.

3. Identification of various human rights linked to environmental governance likely to be affected by the LAPSSET project if implemented as it is (e.g. land rights, impact on land and resource tensions/conflict, health, livelihoods - especially of pastoralist communities, cultural rights, information and public participation).
4. Recommendations to address identified challenges and opportunities, and linkages to the SDG commitments by Kenya and recommendations from human rights mechanisms (including from the UPR process) as they relate to the environment and human rights.

C. Scope of the Consultancy's Work

Under the direct supervision of the Senior Human Rights Adviser, the Consultancy firm will be required to:

1. Undertake a constitutional, human rights and environmental analysis of the LAPSSET project.
