TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. BACKGROUND

Pakistan is a major source, transit, and destination country for trafficking in persons and smuggling of migrants. These phenomena take place in the context of vast irregular migration, involving (1) Pakistani nationals, (2) foreign nationals residing in Pakistan, and (3) other migrants who transit in Pakistan en-route to other destinations.

Pakistan serves as a destination for women and children from Afghanistan trafficked principally for forced labour in regions of Sindh and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. In addition, Pakistan is a major transit country for Afghans who then attempt irregular migration to third countries, particularly to Europe, Australia, UK, and Canada. Both Pakistani and Afghan nationals have been populations of concern to third countries and have consistently featured in the lists of top ten nationalities for border violators, irregular arrivals, illegal residents, and deportees.

Pakistani nationals are among the most-detected nationalities that attempt irregular migration to the European Union (EU) and Australia. At the same time, Afghans are also one of the most detected nationalities for irregular migration. The number of Afghan nationals using smuggling networks to enter the EU and Australia far exceeds the number of Pakistanis. However, the migration patterns of the two populations are entangled, and both populations use the same routes and same smuggling networks. Moreover, Pakistan is a key transit country for Afghans.

The volume of migration appears to be sensitive to push factors in the countries of origin. For example, UNODC anticipates that the pull-out of NATO troops from Afghanistan will lead to an exceptional spike in the volume of migration by Afghan Nationals. As per previous trends, there will be use of fraudulent documentation. Many Afghan men, women, and children, driven by the hope for a better future in Pakistan may fall into the hands of traffickers and smugglers. As per our estimates 73% of the overall victims of trafficking and vulnerable smuggled migrants are exploited in foreign lands.

1. MAIN OBJECTIVES OF THE ASSIGNMENT.

The overall objective of the research is to determine the prevalence of trafficking and smuggling phenomenon, its characteristics and associated push and pull factors, and to build a baseline for evidence-based prevention and protection action plans.

The findings of the study will be disseminated among the targeted agencies, the Federal Investigation Agency, Provincial Police Departments, Provincial departments of Social Welfare, Labour, Child Protection, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Overseas Employment and Human Resource Development as well as other interested agencies.

The study results provide a basis for the capacity building of stakeholders to enhance their capacities to respond to human trafficking and migrants smuggling and to implement the existing SOPs, policies and laws related to Trafficking in Persons and Smuggling of Migrants.

2. SCOPE OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORK

The research will characterize the phenomenon qualitatively and quantitatively through conducting a desk review followed by collecting and analyzing reported cases of victims of trafficking and vulnerable smuggled migrants and through interviewing key informants in the field. The data will be complemented with new methodologies (focus group, questionnaires, etc.), suggested by the selected expert and aimed to cover the following classifications:

- The number of adult trafficked victims reported during and after 2018. This information will be obtained from all relevant sources and providers.
- Socio-demographic information (country or region of origin/destination, age, sex, marital status and household size, education, family, pre-trafficking and smuggling vulnerabilities and needs).
- The push/pull factors (economic, social, cultural, etc.).
- Recruitment mechanisms and migration routes (acts and means to receive the person).
- Exploitative conditions.
- Means of escape and referral (if applicable).
- Consequences of trafficking and smuggling and post-trafficking and smuggling stigma.
- Potential for post-trafficking and post-smuggling reintegration.
- Develop maps to include human trafficking and migrants smuggling routes and flows for internal and cross-border trafficking in Pakistan.
- Draw conclusions and formulate specific recommendations for capacity building to strengthen national stakeholders on victim-centered and gender-sensitive prevention and protection of TIP and SOM, with special emphasis on the development of strategies, programs, and tools.

The Individual contractor acknowledges and agrees that any breach of any of the provisions hereof shall constitute a breach of an essential term of the Contract, and, in addition to any other legal rights or remedies available to any person, shall give rise to grounds for termination of the Contract. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the right of UNDP to refer any alleged breach of the foregoing standards of conduct to the relevant national authorities for appropriate legal action.

The terms or conditions of any supplemental undertakings, licences or other forms of Contract concerning any goods or services to be provided under the Contract shall not be valid and enforceable against UNDP nor in any way shall constitute an Contract by UNDP thereto, unless any such undertakings, licences or other forms of Contract are the subject of a valid written undertaking by UNDP. No modification or change in the Contract shall be valid and enforceable against UNDP unless provided by means of a valid written amendment to the Contract signed by the Individual contractor and an authorized official or appropriate contracting authority of UNDP.

The Individual contractor acknowledges and agrees that none of the insurance arrangements the Individual contractor may make shall, in any way, be construed to limit the Individual contractor's liability arising under or relating to the Contract.

11. ENCUMBRANCES AND LIENS: The Individual contractor shall not cause or permit any lien, attachment or other encumbrance by any person to be placed on file or to remain on file in any public office or on file with UNDP against any monies due to the Individual contractor or to become due for any work done or against any goods supplied or materials furnished under the Contract, or by reason of any other claim or demand against the Individual contractor.

17. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES:

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT: UNDP and the Individual contractor shall use their best efforts to amicably settle any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of the Contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof. Where the parties wish to seek such an amicable settlement through conciliation, the conciliation shall take place in accordance with the Conciliation Rules then obtaining of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law ("UNCITRAL"), or according to such other procedure as may be agreed between the parties in writing.

ARBITRATION: Any dispute, controversy or claim between the parties arising out of the Contract, or the breach, termination, or invalidity thereof, unless settled amicably, as provided above, shall be referred by

The decisions of the arbitral tribunal shall be based on general principles of international commercial law. For all evidentiary questions, the arbitral tribunal shall be guided by the Supplementary Rules Governing the Presentation and Reception of Evidence in International Commercial Arbitration of the International Bar Association, 28 May 1983 edition. The arbitral tribunal shall be empowered to order the return or destruction of goods or any property, whether tangible or intangible, or of any confidential information provided under the Contract, order the termination of the Contract, or order that any other protective measures be taken with respect to the goods, services or any other property, whether tangible or intangible, or of any confidential information provided under the Contract, as appropriate, all in accordance with the authority of the arbitral tribunal pursuant to Article 26 ("Interim Measures of Protection") and Article 32 ("Form and Effect of the Award") of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.
