N°	Question	Answer
1	All financial statements of the members of our JV must be audited for the period of the last 3 years? In case any of the members of the JV has not finalized the audit of FFSS 2020, can we deliver a statement confirming such delivery giving now a statement dully signed and stamped by the CEO of the company that has not finalized the process confirming the audited version will be provided in a posterior time?	Answer to 1st question: Yes Answer to 2nd question: It is already mid October 21 so 2020 audited financial statement should have been ready. Unless there are any other government regulations allowing different audit timeframes for companies (due to different financial accounting year), then this can be explained in the proposal with attachment of such Gov. regulations on different audit timeframe and in this case, the company will submit audited financial statements of 2017,2018, 2019 and not completed report of 2020 with confirmation on when it is ready. This is an exceptional case.
