TERMS OF REFERENCE
for Individual Consultancy Services on Final Evaluation within the scope of Local Administration Reform Phase III (LAR III) Project
Funded by the European Union

1) INTRODUCTION

This Terms of Reference (ToR) specifies the details for the Individual Consultancy Assignment for Final Evaluation of Local Administration Reform Phase III Project implemented by the United Nations Development Programme (hereinafter UNDP), of which the Ministry of Interior and the Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change are co-beneficiaries.

The evaluation will focus on the assessment of the activities implemented and whether the activities led to the achievement of the planned results and objectives (in accordance with the Project Document, Donor Agreement and associated modifications made during implementation). As a result of this evaluation, identifying the lessons learned and recommendations from the evaluator/s are expected to improve the quality of the planning, preparation and implementation of subsequent projects in future.

2) BACKGROUND INFORMATION

As the continuation of the first phase (implemented between 2005-2007) and second phase (implemented between 2009-2011); Local Administration Reform Phase III Project (“the Project”, hereinafter) is a European Union (EU) funded Project, implemented by United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) within the scope of a Pillar Assessed Grant Agreement, signed between Central Finance and Contracts Unit (CFCU) (on 25 May 2018) and UNDP (on 28 June 2018), and endorsed for financing by the EU (on 18 June 2018). The lead beneficiary of the Project is the Ministry of Interior (MoI), Directorate General for Provincial Administrations. In line with the institutional roles and responsibilities of the Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC) amended with the introduction of the new Presidential System of Government, Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC) was proposed to be the co-beneficiary of the Project. The process was initiated by the MoEUCC through an official letter addressed to the MoI (dated 29 August 2018). The MoI evaluated the co-beneficiary status request of the MoEUCC and drafted an agreement letter (dated 31 August 2018) addressed to the MoEUCC. Then, co-beneficiary status of the MoEUCC was approved by the CFCU and the Delegation of the European Union to Turkey (EUD) on 28 December 2018.

The overall objective of the Project is to ensure effective, inclusive, accountable and participatory local governance in Turkey, through support to further implementation of the local administration reform process undertaken between 2003-2013, in line with international standards. The specific objective of the project is to develop and strengthen the administrative capacity and cooperation of Ministry of Interior (MoI), Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC) and Local Authorities themselves in the task of ensuring the effective implementation of the new local administration model in line with principles of democratic governance.
The first and second phases of the Project (i.e. LAR I and LAR II) which were also financed by the EU, were implemented by the MoI and UNDP between 2005-2007 and 2009-2011 respectively. The Project was developed in the light of gains from LAR I and II. Therefore, most of the activities build on and/or complement the activities that have been realized within LAR II with a view to further the LAR and increase the impact.

The Project started with certain implementation delays due to above mentioned amendment in the project management structure with the introduction of new Presidential System of Government, as well as due to delays in decision making in the lead up to the local elections in March 2019. Therefore, it was planned to request 12 months of no-cost extension. However, following the Covid-19 outbreak, it was deemed necessary to request an additional 4 months of extension. In agreement with the Beneficiary Institutions, CFU and EUD, the project was granted with 16 months no-cost extension until 28 October 2021. The project did not cease operation during the pandemic and focused on desk-based activities and continued consultative events through use of online tools until the end of June 2021. Finally, the Project has been granted an additional 9 months of no-cost extension, until 28 July 2022. In terms of progress, necessary measures have been taken to address the challenges faced and the project implementation has been accelerated.

Project Progress:

Output 1: Administrative and operational capacities for efficient provision of local services enhanced

Cumulatively 13 recommendation reports on legislative changes were prepared. 10 municipalities participated in EU Acquis fact-finding mission in August 2019 and 20 municipalities have attended the two 2-day workshops on EU Acquis chapters (the participants to the fact-finding mission were also included in these workshops). They had the opportunity to discuss the acquis adaptation with relevant staff of central bodies.

Online interviews for fact-finding purposes were organized with several local institutions and municipalities, as well as the relevant institutions and selected municipalities in 10 EU member states. The contacts developed during the study visits to France and Spain proved to be very effective in identifying further contacts for interviews and exchange of different practices related to local services within Component 1.

Within the scope of Activity A.1.1.8. “Developing Performance Management System to be Adopted by MMs and District Municipalities” two 2-day face-to-face pilot trainings, which were deemed to be one of the most essential and impactful outputs of the Project, were provided to selected representatives of 4 pilot municipalities. 120 representatives benefitted from these trainings. Within the scope of the same Activity, 4 regional meetings were organized to generate ideas about how to improve the preparation of the performance programs. Around 100 representatives from MMs, MDMs and DMs, including mayors, district governors, NGOs, universities, relevant and attended the meetings. 6 out of 13 legislative recommendations were then reflected into the regulations and other legislative documents by MoEUC. These legislative measures are on “the loan system of local authorities”, “regulation for business licenses”, “infrastructure works in rural areas”, “collection of municipal accounts receivables” and local service delivery standards in “transportation services, rural services, care (early childhood, elderly care) and fire services”.

1 “Target groups” are the groups/entities who will directly benefit from the action at the action purpose level.

Output 2: Administrative and operational capacities of the local authorities for the implementation of new Metropolitan Municipality Model strengthened Between March-June 2021, 20 experience sharing meetings were organized and 70 best practices were shared by municipalities and more than 3,000 representatives from not only various Metropolitan Municipalities (MMs) and district municipalities, but also NGOs and citizens’ assemblies benefitted from these meetings which served as experience sharing platform. In the extension (Addendum No. 2) period covering October 2021-July 2022, a digital experience sharing platform will be designed and launched to ease communication flow among municipalities and enhance knowledge and experience sharing. As of January 2022, draft roadmap is about to be developed which will be discussed and finalized upon discussions held and recommendations of consultation meeting participants and stakeholders. More than 90 training programs were organized and almost 5,000 staff of local authorities benefitted from these trainings.

Within the scope of Component 2, under Activity A.2.1.4. “Develop and Deliver Customized General Management and Job Skills Training Modules for the Use of the GDLA to be Delivered to new MMs”, 37 trainings on different topics were delivered and almost 3,700 staff from MMs and MDMs benefitted from them. All these trainings were transformed into distance learning modules ready for access of all staff of local authorities.

Output 3: Institutional capacity of the local authorities in terms of service delivery and adoption of the principles of democratic governance enhanced

Local service delivery standards in 5 service areas were developed to be implemented in 10 pilot MMs. Implementation guidelines on service standards were prepared.

Within the scope of Activity A.2.2.1. “Develop and implement local service delivery standards” 10 one-day seminars were organized in selected MMs including Tekirdağ, Eskişehir, Ordu, Ankara, Kayseri, Balıkesir, Konya, Gaziantep, Denizli and Muğla with around 750 participants in total. Through pilot applications, these standards are expected to be adopted by these 10 MMs.

During the extension period, two two-day pilot studies will be conducted in two metropolitan municipalities in each area, in order to examine the practices regarding standards in 5 service areas (fire, public health, public health in public transportation, elderly home care and rural services). The pilot provinces for each service area were determined as follows: Balıkesir and Denizli for fire services, Ankara and Gaziantep for public health services, Muğla and Denizli for elderly home care services, Ankara and Eskişehir for public health in public transportation services, Konya and Muğla for rural services. These pilot studies will be completed in February-May 2022 period. As a result of these pilot studies, Local Service Standard Documents in 5 service areas will be developed in cooperation with Turkish Standards Institution. A comprehensive recommendation report has been produced within the scope of Activity A.2.2.4. “Develop a policy paper on reforming the Local Government Electoral System and Strengthening of Municipal Councils”. Report discusses the local election system and representation problems. To improve the local election system and democratic governance, suggestions were made on representation of women and youth, expanding the potential candidate pool, primary elections, preferential voting, quota candidacy and electoral threshold. In addition to this, a new representation model has been proposed, which provides a fairer representation of the districts in the metropolitan municipal councils. The possible results of this model have been demonstrated through simulations.

Within the scope of Activity A.2.2.2. “Develop and Implement Participatory Local Governance Model for new 14 MM”, an implementation guideline on participatory mechanisms was developed which included the general framework and main components of participation, planning of the process, local actors and their roles, best practices from Turkey and around the world and proposed approaches/tools for each phase of participation. The Implementation Guideline has been tested in 3 pilot provinces (Hatay, Malatya, Tekirdağ and Balıkesir) including districts and citizens’ assemblies through trainings. For the extension period, two more pilot provinces were determined, and the pilot studies are extended to 6 pilots in total.

Output 4: Public awareness on urbanization enhanced through institutional and individual capacity enhancement programmes

Within the scope of Activity A.2.3.2. “Design and implement capacity enhancement programs on urban awareness for the staff of Women Centres, Child Development Centres and other relevant social service units”, 5 training modules were prepared targeting the staff of women, child, youth, elderly and disabled care centers and these trainings were carried out online through the Zoom application and broadcasted live on the YouTube channel of the Project. 478 people participated in the online trainings via the Zoom application. The gender distribution of the participants was 70% female and 30% male. All trainings are accessible on YouTube.

Within the scope of Activity A.2.3.3. “Design and implement capacity enhancement programs on urban awareness to be delivered to selected staff of MMs”, a training module targeting the relevant staff of municipalities was developed and this training module was delivered online through Zoom application 5 times and the last one was broadcasted live on the YouTube channel of the Project. 418 people participated in the online trainings via the Zoom application. The gender distribution of the participants was 65% female and 35% male.

Output 5: Efficiency of the local services enhanced through online managements systems

Local Information System (https://formyerelbilgi.csb.gov.tr/) is a system in which the identity, financial, inventory, social, demographic, structuring and institutional data of 1619 institutions (MMs, Metropolitan District Municipalities, Provincial Municipalities, District Municipalities, Town Municipalities, Affiliated Administrations and Local Administration Unions) can be gathered, visualized and reported (https://raporyerelbilgi.csb.gov.tr/) through the business intelligence software TURBOARD.

With this system; all of the local administration units (1619 institutions in total) will be able to submit information to Yerel Bilgi. UNDP design report proposed 288 indicators in total for Yerel Bilgi. MoEUCC went through this list and prepared initial 30 forms on financials, personnel, vehicles, social services, green areas, bicycle roads, public transportation, elderly care, illegal construction, etc. These 30 forms contain over 200 number of indicators in total. All defined users will be able to enter their data through 30 different forms. Forms can be created, edited or removed at any time. However, this authority will be defined only to the administrator account. The remaining institutions will not have any right to take any action regarding the structures of the forms.

Approximately 1600 users from local government bodies (including municipality staff, affiliated organisation staff, provincial administrative unit staff, provincial directorates of MoEUCC) and 10 personnel from MoEUCC/GDLA were trained on Yerel Bilgi and data-oriented work.
3) SCOPE AND OBJECTIVE OF THE EVALUATION

The subject Individual Consultancy Assignment on Final Project Evaluation for LAR III will be initiated for preparing an independent evaluation that measures the expected results and specific objectives achieved against those stated in the Project Document and associated modifications and identifying the lessons learned which are relevant to the planning, preparation and implementation phases of a possible subsequent project through the conduct of an evaluation mission.

This final evaluation has the following specific objectives:

- To measure to what extent the Project has contributed to solve the needs identified in the design phase.
- To measure Project’s degree of implementation, efficiency and quality delivered on expected results (outputs) and specific objectives (outcomes), against what was originally planned or officially revised.
- To assess both negative and positive factors that have facilitated or hampered progress in achieving the Project outcomes, including external factors/environment, weakness in design, management and resource allocation.
- To assess the extent to which the application of the rights-based approach and gender mainstreaming are integrated within planning and implementation of the Project.
- To generate substantive evidence-based knowledge by identifying best practices and lessons learned that could be useful to other development interventions at national (scale up) and international level (replicability) and to support the sustainability of the Project or some of its components.

4) KEY EVALUATION QUESTIONS

Considering the evaluation parameters, the Individual Consultant is expected to analyse data and share his/her findings, conclusions and recommendations generated by this analysis. As a reference point for the evaluation, the Individual Consultant is provided with indicative evaluation questions below, which are expected to be amended, elaborated and submitted and shall be included as an annex to the final version of the evaluation report.

Relevance:

Under this parameter, the Individual Consultant will analyse the extent to which the objectives of this intervention are consistent with the needs and interest of the people, the needs of the country and international norms:

1. To what extent was the LAR III design relevant in supporting Ministry of Interior (MoI), Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC) and Local Authorities implement effective, inclusive, accountable and participatory local governance in Turkey, in line with international standards and principles of democratic governance?
2. To what extent was the design and strategy of the development intervention relevant to national priorities (including 11th National Development Plan (NDP), Strategy of Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC), European Charter of Local Self-governments and EU norms and EU acquis)?
3. What other key intervention areas could be integrated to a possible follow up LAR III Project, which would increase relevance in relation to 11th National Development Plan (NDP), Strategy of Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change (MoEUCC), European Charter of Local Self-governments and EU norms and EU acquis?
4. To what extent was the design and strategy of LAR III in line with UN and UNDP priorities (CPD and UNSDCF)?

6. To what extent was this Project designed as rights based and gender sensitive? (See Gender Equality related documents to be reviewed under Annex C.)
7. To what extent does the Project create synergy/linkages with other projects and interventions in the country?

Effectiveness:
Under this parameter, the Individual Consultant will analyse to what extent the Project objectives have been achieved or how likely they are to be achieved:

1. To what extent did the Project contribute to the attainment of the development of outputs and outcomes initially expected/stipulated in the Project Document’s logical framework until the end of the project duration? (The Individual Consultant is expected to provide detailed analysis of: 1) planned activities and outputs and 2) achievement of results).
2. Compared to 2017 when this project officially started, to what extent local authorities and MoEUCC are better able to implement the new local administration model and to what extent are any improvements in performance attributable to LAR III?
3. To what extent, LAR Phase I and Phase II lessons learned were considered during the current phase and efforts were taken to reach certain results that weren’t achieved in the previous phase.
4. What are the key factors contributing to Project success or underachievement until the mid-term of project execution? How might this be improved in the future?
5. Have any good practices, success stories, lessons learned, or transferable examples been identified? Please describe and document them.
6. To what extent has the Project contributed to the implementation of Local Administration Reforms since 2014 and the fulfilment of the objectives of 11th NDP, United Nations Development Cooperation Strategy (UNDCS) and CPD goals, as well as Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs, above stated EU acquis and EU normative frameworks)?
7. To what extent has the Project contributed to the well-being and human rights of vulnerable groups, including, women and girls? Did the Project effectively contribute to “leave no one behind agenda” and successfully integrate human rights-based approach (HRBA)?
8. To what extent and in what ways has ownership - or the lack of it - by the implementing partner impacted on the effectiveness of LAR III?
9. Did Covid-19 measures have a positive or negative effect on the achievement of Project results?

Efficiency:
Under this parameter, the Individual Consultant will analyse to what extent the resources/inputs (funds, time, human resources, etc.) have been turned into results and the results have been delivered with the least costly way possible:

1. To what extent were the LAR III outputs delivered on time to ensure high quality?
2. Was funding enough for achievement of results? (funding analysis)
3. What was the progress of the project in financial terms, indicating amounts committed and disbursed (total amounts & as percentage of total) by UNDP?
4. To what extent and in what ways has ownership - or the lack of it - by the implementing partner impacted on the efficiency of the LAR III?
5. To what extent was there any identified synergy between UNDP initiatives/projects that contributed to reducing costs while supporting results?
6. How well did Project Management work for achievement of results?
7. To what extent did Project M&E systems provide management with a stream of data that allowed it to learn and adjust implementation accordingly?
8. What type of (administrative, financial and managerial) obstacles did the project face and to what extent have this affected its efficiency?

Sustainability:

Under this parameter, the Individual Consultant will analyse to what extent the Project’s positive actions are likely to continue during the remainder portion and after the end of the Project:

1. To what extent will the LAR III achievements be sustained? What are the possible systems, structures, staff that will ensure its sustainability? What are the challenges and opportunities?
2. To what extent have development partners committed to providing continuing support? What is the risk that the level of stakeholder ownership will be insufficient to allow for the Project outcomes/benefits to be sustained?
3. Are the legal frameworks, policies and governance structures and processes in place for sustaining Project benefits?
4. To what extent will the Project be replicable or scaled up?
5. To what extent will the benefits and outcomes continue after external donor funding ends? What is the likelihood of financial and economic resources not being available once the donor assistance ends?
6. What can be done to maximize the likelihood of sustainable outcomes?

Cross-Cutting Issues:

All the above-mentioned evaluation questions should include an assessment of the extent to which programme design, implementation and monitoring have taken the following cross cutting issues into consideration:

1. To what extent have gender equality and the empowerment of women been addressed in the design, implementation and monitoring of the Project?
2. To what extent has the Project promoted positive changes in gender equality and the empowerment of women? Were there any unintended effects?
3. Is the gender marker data assigned to this Project, representative of reality?
4. To what extent has the Project contributed to “leave no one behind agenda” (including disabled, elderly, youth, refugees etc)?
5. To what extent have environment and climate change issues been addressed in the design, implementation and monitoring of the Project?

5) METHODOLOGICAL APPROACH

The methodology and techniques to be used in the evaluation should be described in detail in the Inception Report and the Final Evaluation Report, and should contain, at minimum, information on the instruments used for data collection and analysis, whether these be documents, interviews, questionnaires or participatory techniques following high level of research ethics and impartiality.

It is strongly suggested that the evaluation should use a mixed method approach whenever possible – collecting and analyzing both qualitative and quantitative data using multiple sources in order to draw valid and evidence-based findings and conclusions and practical recommendations. The Individual Consultant is expected not only to collect quantitative/qualitative data, but also is highly encouraged to review all relevant reports providing quantitative data collected by LAR III.

However, the Individual Consultant is expected to propose and determine a sound evaluation design and methodology (including detailed methodology to answer each evaluation question) and submit it to UNDP in the inception report, following a review of all key relevant documents and meeting with UNDP. Final decisions about the specific design and methods for the evaluation will be made through consultation between UNDP and the Individual Consultant about what is appropriate and feasible to meet the evaluation purpose and objectives, as well as answer the evaluation questions, given limitations of budget, time and data.
The Individual Consultant is expected to follow a participatory and consultative approach ensuring close engagement with stakeholders. Methods to be used by the evaluation consultant to collect and analyze the required data shall include but not limited to:

Desk Review: This should include a review of inter alia:
- Project document
- Result Framework/M&E Framework
- Project Quality Assurance Reports
- Annual Work Plans
- Annual Narrative Reports
- Highlights of Project Board meetings
- Studies relating to the country context and situation

Development of evaluation questions around relevance, effectiveness, efficiency and sustainability and designed for different stakeholders to be interviewed

Semi-structured interviews with key stakeholders including UNDP, Government partners, UN colleagues, development partners, beneficiaries

Key informant interviews with relevant stakeholders from implementing partners, donors, pilot municipalities, beneficiaries supported by LAR III

Analysis of LAR III’s funding, budgets and expenditure generated from Atlas, which will be provided by UNDP.

Analysis and interpretation of qualitative and quantitative data available from various credible sources.

The Individual Consultant will ensure triangulation of the various data sources. Data and evidence will be triangulated with multiple sources to address evaluation questions. The final methodological approach including interview schedule and data to be used in the evaluation should be clearly outlined in the inception report and fully discussed and agreed between UNDP, stakeholders and the Evaluation Consultant.

Gender and Human Rights-Based Approach

As part of the requirement, evaluation must include an assessment of the extent to which the design, implementation, and results of the project have incorporated gender equality perspective and rights-based approach. The Individual Consultant is requested to review UNEG’s Guidance in Integrating Human Rights and Gender Equality in Evaluation during the inception phase.

In addition, the methodology used in the final evaluation, including data collection and analysis methods should be human rights- and gender-sensitive to the greatest extent possible, with evaluation data and findings disaggregated by sex, ethnicity, age, etc. Detailed analysis on disaggregated data will be undertaken as part of final evaluation from which findings are consolidated to make recommendations and identify lessons learned for enhanced gender responsive and rights-based approach of the Project. These evaluation approach and methodology should consider different types of groups in the LAR III Project intervention – women, youth, minorities and vulnerable groups.

2 All interviews should be undertaken in full confidence and anonymity. The final evaluation report should not assign specific comments of individuals.

1) Inception Report:
This report will be 30 pages maximum in length and will propose the methods, sources and procedures to be used for carrying out the independent evaluation. The report should justify why the said methods are the most appropriate, given the set of evaluation questions identified in the ToR. It will also include a mission programme which indicates proposed timeline of activities and submission of deliverables. This document will be used as an initial point of agreement and understanding between the Individual Consultant and UNDP. In principle, the report is expected to contain the outline stated in Annex A of this Terms of Reference.

2) Draft Evaluation Report:
The Draft Evaluation Report will contain the same sections as the Final Evaluation Report detailed under Annex B of this Terms of Reference. It will also contain an executive summary of no more than 5 pages that includes a brief description of the Project, its context and current situation, the purpose of the evaluation, its methodology and its main findings, conclusions and recommendations. The following rating system must be used for evaluation criteria, as well as result ratings in the logical framework (outcomes).

UNDP will disseminate the Draft Evaluation Report to the Evaluation Reference Group in order to seek their comments and suggestions. Comments and suggestions of UNDP and Evaluation Reference Group will be collected in an audit trail and will be shared with the Individual Consultant for it to make final revisions.

3) Final Evaluation Report:
The Final Evaluation Report will also contain an executive summary of no more than 5 pages that includes a brief description of the Project, its context and current situation, the purpose of the evaluation, its methodology and its main findings, conclusions and recommendations. The report should contain, at minimum, information on the instruments used for data collection and analysis, whether these be documents, interviews, questionnaires or participatory techniques following high level of research ethics and impartiality. In addition, the Final Evaluation Report should contain clear recommendations that are concrete, feasible and easy to understand. The Final Evaluation Report will be shared with UNDP to be disseminated to the key stakeholders. In principle, this report is expected to contain the sections stated in Annex B of this Terms of Reference. The Individual Consultant will also submit its answers to the Audit Trail to show the actions taken/not taken and revisions made/not made in line with suggestions and recommendations of UNDP and Evaluation Reference Group providing detailed justifications in each case.

4) Debriefing/Presentation:
A meeting will be organized with key stakeholders including UNDP and Evaluation Reference Group members to present findings, conclusions and recommendations. The meeting will be held either via Zoom or in-person at UNDP Turkey Country Office Premises in Ankara, as deemed appropriate by UNDP. The presentation will dwell on lessons learned but will also be forward looking in proposing recommendations that are actionable by UNDP and its implementing partners.

Reporting Line
The Individual Consultant will be responsible to the Evaluation Manager (in this case UNDP’s Monitoring and Evaluation Analyst) for the completion of the tasks and duties assigned throughout this Terms of Reference. All the reports are subject to approval from Evaluation Manager, for the payments to be affected to the Individual Consultant.

- Identify the intervention of the evaluation (the project(s) programme(s) policies or other intervention—see upcoming section on intervention).
- Acquaint the reader with the structure and contents of the report and how the information contained in the report will meet the purposes of the evaluation and satisfy the information needs of the report’s intended users.

7. Description of the intervention provides the basis for report users to understand the logic and assess the merits of the evaluation methodology and understand the applicability of the evaluation results. The description needs to provide enough detail for the report user to derive meaning from the evaluation. It should:

- Describe what is being evaluated, who seeks to benefit and the problem or issue it seeks to address.
- Explain the expected results model or results framework, implementation strategies and the key assumptions underlying the strategy.
- Link the intervention to national priorities, UNDCS priorities, and objectives, corporate multi-year funding frameworks or Strategic Plan goals, or other programme or country-specific plans and goals.
- Identify the phase in the implementation of the intervention and any significant changes (e.g., plans, strategies, logical frameworks) that have occurred over time, and explain the implications of those changes for the evaluation.
- Identify and describe the key partners involved in the implementation and their roles.
- Include data and an analysis of specific social groups affected. Identify relevant cross-cutting issues addressed through the intervention, i.e., gender equality, human rights, marginalized groups and leaving no one behind.
- Describe the scale of the intervention, such as the number of components (e.g., phases of a project) and the size of the target population for each component.
- Indicate the total resources, including human resources and budgets.
- Describe the context of the social, political, economic and institutional factors, and the geographical landscape within which the intervention operates and explain the effects (challenges and opportunities) those factors present for its implementation and outcomes.
- Point out design weaknesses (e.g., intervention logic) or other implementation constraints (e.g., resource limitations).

8. Evaluation scope and objectives. The report should provide a clear explanation of the evaluation’s scope, primary objectives and main questions.

- Evaluation scope. The report should define the parameters of the evaluation, for example, the time period, the segments of the target population included, the geographic area included, and which components, outputs or outcomes were and were not assessed.
- Evaluation objectives. The report should spell out the types of decisions evaluation users will make, the issues they will need to consider in making those decisions and what the evaluation will need to achieve to contribute to those decisions.
Evaluation criteria. The report should define the evaluation criteria or performance standards used. The report should explain the rationale for selecting the criteria used in the evaluation.

Evaluation questions define the information that the evaluation will generate. The report should detail the main evaluation questions addressed by the evaluation and explain how the answers to these questions address the information needs of users.

9. Evaluation approach and methods. The evaluation report should describe in detail the selected methodological approaches, methods and analysis; the rationale for their selection; and how, within the constraints of time and money, the approaches and methods employed yielded data that helped answer the evaluation questions and achieved the evaluation purposes. The report should specify how gender equality, vulnerability and social inclusion were addressed in the methodology, including how data-collection and analysis methods integrated gender considerations, use of disaggregated data and outreach to diverse stakeholders’ groups. The description should help the report users judge the merits of the methods used in the evaluation and the credibility of the findings, conclusions and recommendations. The description on methodology should include discussion of each of the following:

- Evaluation approach.
- Data sources: the sources of information (documents reviewed and stakeholders) as well as the rationale for their selection and how the information obtained addressed the evaluation questions.
- Sample and sampling frame. If a sample was used: the sample size and characteristics; the sample selection criteria (e.g., single women under age 45); the process for selecting the sample (e.g., random, purposive); if applicable, how comparison and treatment groups were assigned; and the extent to which the sample is representative of the entire target population, including discussion of the limitations of sample for generalizing results.
- Data-collection procedures and instruments: methods or procedures used to collect data, including discussion of data-collection instruments (e.g., interview protocols), their appropriateness for the data source, and evidence of their reliability and validity, as well as gender-responsiveness.
- Performance standards: the standard or measure that will be used to evaluate performance relative to the evaluation questions (e.g., national or regional indicators, rating scales).
- Stakeholder participation in the evaluation and how the level of involvement of both men and women contributed to the credibility of the evaluation and the results.
- Ethical considerations: the measures taken to protect the rights and confidentiality of informants (see UNEG ‘Ethical Guidelines for Evaluators’ for more information).

4 Background information on evaluators: the composition of the evaluation consultant, the background and skills of team members, and the appropriateness of the technical skill mix, gender balance and geographical representation for the evaluation.

- Major limitations of the methodology should be identified and openly discussed as to their implications for evaluation, as well as steps taken to mitigate those limitations.

10. Data analysis. The report should describe the procedures used to analyze the data collected to answer the evaluation questions. It should detail the various steps and stages of analysis that were carried out, including the steps to confirm the accuracy of data and the results for different stakeholder groups (men and women, different social groups, etc.). The report also should discuss the appropriateness of the analyses to the evaluation questions. Potential weaknesses in the data analysis and gaps or limitations of the data should be discussed, including their possible influence on the way findings may be interpreted and conclusions drawn.

11. Findings should be presented as statements of fact that are based on analysis of the data. They should be structured around the evaluation questions so that report users can readily make the connection between what was asked and what was found. Variances between planned and actual results should be explained, as well as factors affecting the achievement of intended results. Assumptions or risks in the project or programme design that subsequently affected implementation should be discussed. Findings should reflect gender equality and women’s empowerment, disability and other cross-cutting issues, as well as possible unanticipated effects.

12. Conclusions should be comprehensive and balanced and highlight the strengths, weaknesses and outcomes of the intervention. They should be well substantiated by the evidence and logically connected to evaluation findings. They should respond to key evaluation questions and provide insights into the identification of and/or solutions to important problems or issues pertinent to the decision-making of intended users, including issues in relation to gender equality and women’s empowerment as well as to disability and other cross-cutting issues.

13. Recommendations. The report should provide practical, actionable and feasible recommendations directed to the intended users of the report about what actions to take or decisions to make. Recommendations should be reasonable in number. The recommendations should be specifically supported by the evidence and linked to the findings and conclusions around key questions addressed by the evaluation. They should address sustainability of the initiative and comment on the adequacy of the project exit strategy, if applicable. Recommendations should also provide specific advice for future or similar projects or programming. Recommendations should also address any gender equality and women’s empowerment issues and priorities for action to improve these aspects. Recommendations regarding disability and other cross-cutting issues also need to be addressed.

14. Lessons learned. As appropriate and/or if requested by the TOR, the report should include discussion of lessons learned from the evaluation, that is, new knowledge gained from the particular circumstance (intervention, context outcomes, even about evaluation methods) that are applicable to a similar context. Lessons should be concise and based on specific evidence presented in the report. Gender equality and women’s empowerment, disability and other cross-cutting issues should also be considered.

15. Report annexes. Suggested annexes should include the following to provide the report user with supplemental background and methodological details that enhance the credibility of the report:

- TOR for the evaluation.
- Additional methodology-related documentation, such as the evaluation matrix and data-collection instruments (questionnaires, interview guides, observation protocols, etc.) as appropriate.
