Dear Sir / Madam:

We kindly request you to submit your Proposal for Long-Term Agreement for the Customs Clearance and Freight Forwarding Services (the detailed TOR is attached separately as Annex 1a).

Please be guided by the form attached hereto as Annex 2, in preparing your Proposal.

Proposals need to be submitted on or before Tuesday, 31 March 2022, 4:00pm local Yerevan time (GMT +4) via email only:

tenders.armenia@undp.org

Please note that proposals received through any other e-mail address will not be considered.
Your Proposal must be expressed in the English, and valid for a minimum period of 60 days calendar days.

In the course of preparing your Proposal, it shall remain your responsibility to ensure that it reaches the address above on or before the deadline. Proposals that are received by UNDP after the deadline indicated above, for whatever reason, shall not be considered for evaluation. If you are submitting your Proposal by email, kindly ensure that they are signed and in the .pdf format, and free from any virus or corrupted files.

Services proposed shall be reviewed and evaluated based on completeness and compliance of the Proposal and responsiveness with the requirements of the RFP and all other annexes providing details of UNDP requirements.

The Proposal that complies with all of the requirements, meets all the evaluation criteria and offers the best value for money shall be selected and awarded the contract. Any offer that does not meet the requirements shall be rejected.
Any discrepancy between the unit price and the total price shall be re-computed by UNDP, and the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If the Service Provider does not accept the final price based on UNDP’s re-computation and correction of errors, its Proposal will be rejected.

No price variation due to escalation, inflation, fluctuation in exchange rates, or any other market factors shall be accepted by UNDP after it has received the Proposal. At the time of Award of Contract or Purchase Order, UNDP reserves the right to vary (increase or decrease) the quantity of services and/or goods, by up to a maximum twenty five per cent (25%) of the total offer, without any change in the unit price or other terms and conditions.

Any Contract or Purchase Order that will be issued as a result of this RFP shall be subject to the General Terms and Conditions attached hereto. The mere act of submission of a Proposal implies that the Service Provider accepts without question the General Terms and Conditions of UNDP, herein attached as Annex 3.

Please be advised that UNDP is not bound to accept any Proposal, nor award a contract or Purchase Order, nor be responsible for any costs associated with a Service Providers preparation and submission of a Proposal, regardless of the outcome or the manner of conducting the selection process.

UNDP’s vendor protest procedure is intended to afford an opportunity to appeal for persons or firms not awarded a Purchase Order or Contract in a competitive procurement process. In the event that you believe you have not been fairly treated, you can find detailed information about vendor protest procedures in the following link: http://www.undp.org/content/undp/en/home/operations/procurement/protestandsanctions/

UNDP encourages every prospective Service Provider to prevent and avoid conflicts of interest, by disclosing to UNDP if you, or any of your affiliates or personnel, were involved in the preparation of the requirements, design, cost estimates, and other information used in this RFP.

UNDP implements a zero tolerance on fraud and other proscribed practices, and is committed to preventing, identifying and addressing all such acts and practices against UNDP, as well as third parties involved in UNDP activities. UNDP expects its Service Providers to adhere to the UN Supplier Code of Conduct found in this link: http://www.un.org/depts/ptd/pdf/conduct_english.pdf

Thank you and we look forward to receiving your Proposal.

Sincerely yours,

Procurement Unit / UNDP Armenia

Terms of Reference (TOR)
Customs Clearance and Freight Forwarding Services

1. Background

In order to achieve further time and cost efficiency from economies of scale while ensuring outstanding quality of service, UNDP and other UN agencies wish to enter into a Long Term Agreement with one of the most competent companies to serve its customs clearance, freight forwarding and inland transportation services.

The contractor shall provide the necessary equipment (Trucks, Cranes, Forklift including drivers/operators), facilities, qualified personnel, expertise and other means necessary to perform the customs clearance, freight forwarding and inland transportation and related services in accordance with the best commercial practice.

UN agencies will negotiate an agreement for an initial period of One (1) year with a Contractor for the provision of customs clearance services. This Agreement may be renewed, at the sole option of the UN agencies, on the same terms and conditions, for Two (2) additional periods of One (1) year each, by means of a written notification of such renewal by the UN agencies to the Contractor and upon an Annual Performance Appraisal of the services provided.

2. Objectives:

To provide comprehensive, high quality, efficient and well managed customs clearance and Freight Forwarding services for the following UN agencies in Armenia.

Customs Clearance and Forwarding
The contractor shall manage customs clearance of goods from point of entry for road surface shipments and air shipments. The contractor will also manage warehousing, cargo handling and freight forwarding services.

Expected Types of Consignments
The main commodities to be customs cleared, warehoused and transported are, but will not be limited to, the following:

- Vehicles, motorcycles etc.
- Drugs, laboratory equipment and medical supplies
- Various Machinery equipment
- Educational and printed materials
- Office supplies and equipment
- IT equipment, telecommunications equipment, consumables etc.
- Personal effects of UN staff under re-assignment
- Dangerous Goods
- Other items that are not listed above but are necessary for the activities of the UN agencies in Armenia.

3. Scope of Work
\textbf{Customs Clearance}

The Contractor shall provide full clearing and forwarding services as and when requested by UNDP and UN agencies, in Armenian Drams (AMD), in its capacity as an accredited clearing and forwarding company. The scope of such services shall include the following:

\textbf{a) Air freight Imports.}
- Airfreight clearance on tax free basis;
- Provisional clearance pending perfection of documents (undertaking);
- Arrangement of proper warehousing facilities and delivery to the final destinations;
- Arrangement of required transit insurance up to the place of final delivery;

\textbf{b) Surface Imports}
- Surface imports clearance, mostly containerized cargo and vehicles on tax free basis;
- Administrative payments at border points for all applicable expenses;
- Arrangement of proper warehousing facilities and delivery to the final destinations;
- Arrangement of required transit insurance up to the place of final delivery;

The Contractor also should:
- Promptly inform the UN agency for purpose of approval of any situation under the Contract, which might impose additional financial obligations on the UN agency.
- Arrange with the UN agency for timely transportation of consignments to avoid storage or demurrage charges.
- Provide attendance at Customs Physical Examinations, at a required time and relevant point of entry;
- Collect and deliver cargo, if required;
- Provide diplomatic car registration, if required;
- Provide handling and processing of export documentation, if required;
- Manage the entire transport chain and logistical functions from the point of origin to the point of destination, including all elements of the various modes of transport necessary up to and including the delivery to the pre-defined destination. This will include all necessary equipment, facilities, qualified personnel, expertise and other means necessary to perform the transport, freight forwarding and related services in accordance with best commercial practice;
- Provide services to UN on a priority basis throughout the contractual period.

The Contractor shall have their full attention and dedicated staff for all UN consignments, and shall have the supplies cleared in a limited time in order to avoid delays and demurrage.

The Contractor is expected to promptly notify UN agencies’ logistics focal points of any loss, damage or delay in respect of the goods as may be required under the applicable contract of carriage or under the applicable transport document.

\textbf{Shipping Documents:}
The UN agencies will ensure that the following documents are handed to the contractor as soon as they are received from the supplier:

\textbf{For Surface shipments:}
- Original copy of the bill of lading;
- Original copy of the supplier’s invoice;
- Copy of packing list (if different from invoice);
- Authorization letters/other related documents;

For air Shipments:
- Copy of air waybill;
- Original copy of the supplier’s invoice;
- Copy of packing list (if different from invoice);
- Authorization letters/other related documents;

4. Organizational Requirements
Management and Liaison with UN agencies
- The Contractor shall nominate a professional and reliable contact person (s) who will be responsible for the performance of the obligations and to liaise with the UN agencies’ procurement/logistics focal points at all times;
- UNDP, on behalf of other UN agencies, reserves the right to request the Contractor at any time during the term of this arrangement to assign additional personnel or to replace any of the Contractor’s designated staff dealing with UNDP shipment and the Contractor shall promptly comply with such request;
- The Contractor shall provide the names, contact and CV(s) of the designated staff dealing with the UN shipments.

5. Required Qualification:
The Contractor is expected to provide high quality services in an efficient manner and is expected to have the following service qualities:
- The service provider should be knowledgeable and familiar with relevant customs regulations, especially those applicable to Humanitarian Aid and International Organizations.
- The service provider must be knowledgeable of international conventions and local laws with regards to carriage of goods by sea, air and land.
- The service provider shall provide the necessary equipment, facilities, qualified personnel, expertise and other means necessary to perform the customs clearance, warehousing and transportation services in accordance with the best commercial practice to deliver promptly.
- Must demonstrate sound financial stability.
- Provide inventory monitoring and reporting.

The Contractor should have valid license for the activity of the customs broker issued in the Republic of Armenia.

6. Other Tasks to be performed by the Contractor on behalf of UNDP Armenia.
The Contractor, in addition to its regular tasks stated in the scope of work, will, on behalf of the UN agencies and in liaison with their procurement/logistics focal points, represent and/or negotiate with the relevant authorities and third parties for issues that don’t require the presence of a UN representative. This can include but not be limited to:
- Processing of export permits and related licenses for UN consignments;
- Prepay or arrange for prepayments of all applicable charges from the point of delivery by the supplier as indicated in the purchase order to point of ultimate destination named in the purchase order, provided that the Contractor shall ensure that such charges do not include taxes, excises or other duties imposed.
