1) PROJECT DESCRIPTION AND BACKGROUND

UNDP works with countries to expand people’s choices for a fairer, sustainable future, to build the world envisioned by the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development with planet and people in balance. As shown by the UNDP’s Strategic Plan 2022-2025, the challenge of the next four years is to accelerate and scale up development results significantly, bringing the Sustainable Development Goals back within reach. Towards that end, UNDP will support change in three directions:

- Structural transformation, particularly green, inclusive and digital transitions;
- Leaving no one behind, a rights-based approach centred on human agency and human development;
- Building resilience to respond to systemic uncertainty and risk.

These are huge, whole-of-society puzzles that require collective efforts and integrated approaches. To be an effective partner in transformative change, UNDP has to build not just new skills, like systems thinking, but a new culture: one that embraces complexity, actively manages risk, continually adapts and seeks to learn alongside delivering results.

UNDP will look beyond sectoral challenges for opportunities for transformative change. It will continue to deliver projects, but will increasingly plan, align and manage them as portfolios comprising a mix of short, medium- and long-term interventions, supported by research, advocacy and investment. A portfolio approach means understanding issues from a systems perspective, leveraging linkages across interventions to achieve broader goals. This requires a different risk appetite, prepared to explore innovative options.

The Regional Innovation Centre (RIC) based at the UNDP Bangkok Regional Hub, has been established by UNDP Asia-Pacific to leverage innovation to generate new development responses and robust development solutions, by developing new products, services and offers, new ways of solving development issues across the Governments and Country Offices within the UNDP Asia Pacific Region. The Centre provides a safe space to test development solutions through portfolios of policy experiments, new and innovative products and through scaling best practise solutions that exist within the region. The RIC works to foster an innovative culture that helps the UNDP, governments and other partners be on the front foot of spotting, understanding, and integrating new development approaches into their work. The Centre has a key role in helping deliver on the UNDP Strategic Plan 2022 – 2025 which has systems transformation, strategic innovation and digital transformation at its core.

Over the past two years, the RIC has been actively working with several Country Offices and city governments applying system-based approaches leading to design of several comprehensive and contextualized portfolios serving as foundation for system transformation in the respective jurisdictions. Based on this field work, the RIC has developed an in-house “Guidebook for Adopting Portfolio Approaches” to support organization efforts aimed at transformational change in the region and beyond.
2) SCOPE OF WORK

The Regional Innovation Centre (RIC) based in Bangkok, Thailand, established by UNDP Asia-Pacific, has been working to continuously develop and iterate its in-house portfolio approach to help Country Offices and other stakeholders in developing their capability to deal with complex challenges through supply of coherent policy options and inclusive community engagement. The RIC’s Guidebook outlines this approach through the “Sense&Frame - Engage&Position - Transform” framework. The RIC took a staggered approach in the process, with some portfolios already being in transform phase moving into experimentation and then to scale. The role of this assignment is to collaborate with the Portfolio Management Specialist, to support RIC and selected COs to deliver and manage a selected group of portfolios in a coherent manner, to ensure cities and COs learn and adapt portfolio execution to achieve higher impact, and can build sustainable coalitions for delivery.

The scope of work includes three major segments under Impact and Learning:

IMAPCT AND LEARNING

1. Draft Monitoring and Evaluation framework to support implementation of the selected portfolios for system change. The suggested framework should be inclusive of but not limited to the following considerations:
   (a) Understanding portfolio’s (and as such Organization’s) unique contribution to the system change in the selected jurisdictions.
   (b) Method to balance between long-term system wide and short-term outcomes as well as between ‘whole-of-portfolio’ vs (sum of) individual interventions’ impact.
   (c) Argument around selected areas of focus (boundaries) of the framework.
   (d) Balance between quantitative and qualitative methods to develop indicators.
   (e) Learning and feedback mechanisms for continuous and agile adaptation, alongside the Portfolio Management Specialist

2. Adaptive learning and progress measurement to support portfolio management:
   (a) Design and help teams in adoption of continuous learning and collaboration mechanism throughout the first phase of portfolio implementation.
   (b) Support developing learning plans for the teams and close collaborators.
   (c) Link M&E and learning to support portfolio management and help integrate it into respective framework.
   (d) Agile mechanism for progress tracking and continuous data review under the selected portfolios.
   (e) Co-facilitation of learning sessions between COs and key stakeholders.
   (f) Support to networking and cross-portfolio learning.
   (g) Support ongoing codification of the process through joint blogs, briefs, webinars and other relevant knowledge products.

3. Interim MEL Framework and Impact Assessment:
   (a) Present and validate the MEL framework with relevant CO teams, key stakeholders and the Portfolio Management Specialist.
   (b) Present and validate interim impact assessment and provide recommendations for scaling.
   (c) Continuous review of relevant work by other organizations or UNDP regional or thematic teams and knowledge exchange with them (such as UNDP SIU).
   (d) Continuous exploration of external partnerships around impact and learning for system change.
   (e) Support in adaptation of the MEL framework into the RIC’s Guidebook for Adopting Portfolio Approaches as a metamodel for use by other teams and organizations.
