

Addendum 1 to RFP-059-IND-2022
dated 24 May 2022

The following addendum is hereby being made to the RFP document for “Financing for Disaster and Climate Resilient Infrastructure”.

The below “Annexure-3” is appended to the RFP document.

Annexure-3

Eligibility and Evaluation criteria for the bidder
(Minimum qualification and experience required)

S. No.	Evaluation for:	Eligibility Criteria
1.	Lead partner institution (who would be serving as Coordinating Lead Author of Pillar 5) experience.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The bidder should have been in existence professionally and functionally for at least 10 years.
2.	Team credentials	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The bidder should comprise of a team experienced in the workstream- Financing for Disaster and Climate Resilient Infrastructure (Pillar 5) and constitute of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A team leader: Having expertise and work experience in the workstream for at least 7 years as being a member/ team leader of a project/projects that have catered to the workstream and with a master’s degree or preferably a higher qualification i.e., a PhD in Economics, Climate Finance, Environment, or related subjects. ○ Team members: Having expertise and work experience in the workstream for at least 4 years as being a member/ team leader on project/projects that catered to the workstream and with a master’s degree or preferably a higher qualification i.e., a PhD in Economics, Climate Finance, Environment, or related subjects.

3.	Project credentials and work experience of the Institution	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The bidder should have experience in formulating, planning, and implementing projects pertaining to workstream.• At least 7 projects should have been implemented and supported by the bidder in the last 10 years.• The projects should ideally entail geographical and regional diversity, catering to an expansive climate and disaster risks assessment and/or resilience enhancement.• The projects having exhibited pilot studies and case studies across vulnerable regions, would add value to the submitted offer by the bidder.
----	---	--

All other terms and conditions of the RFP document, except as appended herein above, remain unaltered.

Procurement Unit, UNDP India

United Nations Development Programme, 55 Lodi Estate, New Delhi – 110 003.