ANNEX 1: SCHEDULE OF REQUIREMENTS

Terms of Reference

Provision of trainings to National Economic Development Board (NEDB) staff on:

LOT 1: Public Private Partnership; LOT 2: SDGs for Business

Background:

Within a strategic framework, supported and facilitated by UNDP and other international actors, the Government of Libya developed policies and programs geared towards alleviating the myriad of challenges facing those mostly in need. As committed international partners, UNDP, IOM and other UN agencies created a task force to actualize the United Nations Socio-Economic Framework for the Immediate Response to COVID-19 (UNSEF). One of these was the development of Libya's Social Protection Policy (SPP), which serves as a key tool in the government's crisis response and coordination mechanisms. To support this process, UNDP and IOM are leading the Labor Markets pillar of the SPP Task Force, which will build capacity of the National Economic Development Board (NEDB) in the areas of public-private partnerships and SDGs for business.

Provision of trainings on Public Private Partnership and SDGs for Business Objectives:

Public-Private Partnership (PPP) training courses illustrate the lessons and critical success factors of public-private partnerships using real-world examples from both public, government, and private sector perspectives. After attending a Public Private Partnership (PPP) training course, government officials will be better prepared to build more sustainable and rewarding public-private partnerships. In addition, national counterparts will be ready to take advantage of new opportunities that are rapidly developing due to trends such as population growth, resource scarcity and global health risks, through being familiarized with SDGs for business.

Scope of Service

The services are divided into two trainings lots as below:

LOT 1: Public Private Partnership

LOT 2: SDGs for Business

Length of each of the two trainings:

- Each training will need to be completed in one-week time (5 consecutive days) during end of November to December 2022 period (in case of any change in training dates, exact dates will be communicated at the time of contract), and subject to instructor availability.
- For the training purposes, the offeror should make available necessary both instructor, training material in Arabic, and equipment for the training.

Language of instruction for all the two trainings:

Training must be provided in Arabic Language.

Lot 1: Public Private Partnership

The objective of this trainings is capacity building training for 5 members in the Government of Libya (GoL) focal points under the SPP Labour Market pillar, in order to be better prepared to build more sustainable and rewarding public-private partnerships.

The training will provide an understanding of PPPs as the best approach for developing specific projects from both government and private sector perspectives. Increase the participants' knowledge and understanding of what strategic planning is, how to gather and analyze information and formulation of a strategy.

Description of the Required Services:

Five days training programme in Arabic for 5 participants on Public Private Partnership, with focus on below minimum areas:

- Scope, infrastructure, structure, and types of PPP contracts
- PPP framework creation and its relevant process
- Project financing and financial analysis in PPP projects
- PPP valuations; market analysis and how to develop risks
- PPP concessions and lessons learned from case studies to understand

Lot 2: - SDGs for Business

The purpose of this training is to develop the capacity of 5 members of the Government of Libya (GoL) focal points under the SPP Labour Market pillar, to shed light on advantages of long term profits over short term gains given natural disasters, pandemics, social unrest, or economic disparity can destroy long-term prosperity, as well as planet and its population.

The training must provide skills in understanding how to successfully take responsibility for, not just profit, but our planet and its population, the training will try to achieve the following objectives:

- Understand SDGs business model
- Understand the complexity of an uncertain future
- Explore the implications of a choice for all the affected parties
- Decisive strategies for profits, people, and planet issues
- Flexibility for further advancement in the future

Description of the Required Services:

5 days training programme in Arabic for 5 participants on SDGs for Business, with focus on below minimum areas:

- How to accelerate SDG implementation
- Executive management oversight, authority, and the responsibility for SDGs programs
- Build executive management capacity to deliver meaningful change
- How to formulate standards and centralise business mission planning

- Building upon previously mentioned objectives to ensure national shareholders confidence in planning for SDGs in the future

Venue of the trainings:

Both trainings shall take place in Istanbul (Turkey), as the preferred location both for convenience and on the request of National Economic Development Board (NEDB) – Given Libyan visa prolonged process to bring international instructors and Libyan government official's visa application impediments.

Note: UNDP will take care of Participants travel arrangement and accommodation except for visa applications.
