Please be advised that UNDP's vendor protest procedure is intended to afford an opportunity to appeal for persons or firms not awarded a purchase order or contract in a competitive procurement process. In the event that you believe you have not been fairly treated, you can find detailed information about vendor protest procedures in the following link: <http://www.undp.org/procurement/protest.shtml>.

UNDP encourages every prospective Vendor to avoid and prevent conflicts of interest, by disclosing to UNDP if you, or any of your affiliates or personnel, were involved in the preparation of the requirements, design, specifications, cost estimates, and other information used in this RFQ.

UNDP implements a zero tolerance on fraud and other proscribed practices, and is committed to identifying and addressing all such acts and practices against UNDP, as well as third parties involved in UNDP activities. UNDP expects its suppliers to adhere to the UN Supplier Code of Conduct found in this link : http://www.un.org/depts/ptd/pdf/conduct_english.pdf

Thank you and we look forward to receiving your quotation.

Sincerely yours,

Nestan Khuntsaria
Programme Associate

General Conditions for Professional Services

1. LEGAL STATUS

The Contractor shall be considered as having the legal status of an independent contractor vis-à-vis UNDP. The Contractor's personnel and sub-contractors shall not be considered in any respect as being the employees or agents of UNDP or the United Nations.

2. OBLIGATIONS

The contractor shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to the United Nations Development Programme in connection with the performance of its services under this Contract. The contractor shall refrain from any action, which may adversely affect the United Nations Development Programme and shall fulfil its commitments with fullest regard for the interest of the United Nations. The contractor shall not advertise or otherwise make public the fact that it is a contractor with the United Nations Development Programme. Also the contractor shall, in no other manner whatsoever use the name, emblem or official seal of the United Nations Development Programme or any abbreviation of the name of the United Nations in connection with its business or otherwise. Contractors may not communicate at any time to any other person, Government or authority external to the United Nations or any information known to them by reason of their association with the United Nations which has not been made public, except in the course of their duties or by authorization of the Secretary-General or his designate; nor shall contractors at any time use such information to private advantage. These obligations do not lapse upon termination of their agreement with the United Nations Development Programme.

3. TITLE RIGHTS

- (a) The United Nations shall be entitled to all property rights including but not limited to patents, copyrights and trademarks, with regard to material which bears a direct relation to or is made in consequence of, the services provided to the Organization by the contractor. At the request of the United Nations, the contractor shall assist in securing such property rights and transferring them to the Organization in compliance with the requirements of the applicable law. At the request of the United Nations, the contractor shall take all necessary steps, execute all necessary documents and generally assist in securing such property rights and transferring them to the Organization in compliance with the requirements of the applicable law.

(b) Title to any equipment and supplies which may be furnished by the United Nations shall rest with the United Nations and any such equipment shall returned to the United Nations at the conclusion of this Contract or when no longer needed by the contractor. Such equipment when returned to the United Nations, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Contractor, subject to normal wear and tear.

4. SUB-CONTRACTING

In the event the Contractor requires the services of sub-contractors, the Contractor shall obtain the prior written approval and clearance of UNDP for all sub-contractors. The approval of UNDP of a sub-contractor shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations under this Contract. The terms of any sub-contract shall be subject to and conform with the provisions of this Contract.

5. INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

The contractor shall indemnify, hold and save harmless and defend, at its own expense, the UN, its officers, agents, servants and employees from and against all suits, claims, demands and liability of any nature or kind, including costs and expenses arising out of acts or omissions of the contractor or his employees or sub-contractors in the performance of this Contract. This clause shall extend to claims and liability in the nature of workmen's compensation claims or liability or those arising out of the use of patented inventions or devices.

In compliance with this clause, the contractor shall obtain and maintain adequate liability and property damage insurance in respect of any tort action or tort claim arising out of contractor's acts or omissions related to this Contract. The contractor shall, upon request, provide proof of such insurance.

The Contractor shall not permit any lien, attachment or other encumbrance by any person to remain on file in any public office or on file with the UN against any monies due or to become due for any work done or materials furnished under this Contract, or by reason of any other claim or demand against the contractor.

6. TERMINATION

This Contract may be terminated by either party before the expiry date of the Contract by giving notice in writing to the other party. The period of notice shall be five days in the case of contracts for a total period of less than two months and fourteen days in the case of contracts for a longer period.

In the event of the Contract being terminated prior to its due expiry date in this way, the contractor shall be compensated on a pro rata basis for no more than the actual amount of work performed to the satisfaction of the United Nations. Additional costs incurred by the United Nations resulting from the termination of the Contract by the contractor may be withheld from any amount otherwise due to the contractor from the United Nations.

7. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any controversy or claim arising out of, or in accordance with this Contract or any breach thereof, shall, unless it is settled by direct negotiation, be settled in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules as at present in force. The parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such controversy or claim.

8. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

Nothing in or relating to this Contract shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, including its subsidiary organs.

9. OBSERVANCE OF THE LAW

The Contractor shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations bearing upon the performance of its obligations under the terms of this Contract.

10. AUTHORITY TO MODIFY

No modification or change in this Contract, no waiver of any of its provisions or any additional contractual relationship of any kind with the Contractor shall be valid and enforceable against UNDP unless provided by an amendment to this Contract signed by the authorized official of UNDP.
