I. BACKGROUND

In 2006, the GoI conducted a Gap Analysis to identify variations between the laws and regulations of the Republic of Indonesia and the UNCAC. This Gap Analysis was identified as being an effective tool of implementation of the UNCAC and was thus considered to be an important tool to strengthen Indonesia’s capacity to prevent and repress corruption. In 2010, Indonesia voluntarily participated in the UNCAC Pilot Review Programme. Following this review, which focused on chapter III (Criminalization and Law Enforcement) and chapter IV (International Cooperation, 32 recommendations were given which were then used by the GoI as a basis for an action plan to combat corruption. Now that six years have passed since this initial review, the UNCAC Implementation Review Mechanism is moving into the second cycle, therefore Indonesia will soon face a second round peer-review for chapter II (Prevention) and chapter V (Asset Recovery).

Since 2009, UNODC has been providing technical assistance to Indonesia to strengthen its legislative, regulatory, policy and institutional measures to prevent and fight against corruption as part of UNODC’s Country Programme, Indonesia. (2012-2015, extended to 2016). Under this programme, UNODC supports the Government of Indonesia (GoI) to effectively prevent, detect, investigate, and prosecute corrupt practices. As part of these efforts, UNODC supports the GoI by strengthening the coherence, consistency, and effectiveness of the implementation of the United Nations Convention Against Corruption (UNCAC).

Currently, Indonesia will face a second peer review which focused on Chapter II and Chapter V. To achieve compliance of UNCAC, UNODC in cooperate with Bappenas and the KPK initiate a study on the gaps between the standards set by the UNCAC and the current Indonesian legislation and institutional framework. This gap analysis study, "Identification of Gaps between Laws/ Regulations of the Republic of Indonesia and the UNCAC", may be of benefit beyond the borders of Indonesia.

In relation to the above, UNODC will support GoI by hiring a team leader to conduct a gap analysis of chapters II, III, IV and V. The team leader will work alongside a consultant to carry out a detailed analytical comparison between the laws/regulations of the Republic of Indonesia and the provisions and standards of the UNCAC. Based on this analysis, the national consultant team will produce a gap analysis matrix which will be produced in Bahasa Indonesia and English that systematically compares the Indonesian legislative, regulatory, policy and institutional systems with the UNCAC standards to comprehensively assess the extent of compliance gaps.

II. SCOPE OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORK

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this assignment is to conduct a substantive Gap Analysis between the laws and regulations of the Republic of Indonesia and UNCAC, focusing on chapters II, III, IV and V.

SCOPE OF WORK

Under the supervision of the Programme Associate, the team leader will:

- Output 1: Formulate the Gap Analysis and provide substantive input and advice to the GoI in preparation for the review of UNCAC chapters II, III, IV and V;
- Output 2: Provide legal advice on the drafting of the Gap Analysis and on the political process in Indonesia for the adoption of laws;
- Output 3: Provide advice and support for the preparation, execution and follow-up of consultation meetings and workshops with the government, private sector and CSOs;
- Output 4: Produce a Gap Analysis matrix which systematically compares the Indonesian legislative, regulatory, policy and institutional systems with the UNCAC standards to assess the extent of compliance gaps and identify/report on what actions are necessary to ensure full compliance with UNCAC.
• Output 5: Produce a final Gap Analysis report that is endorsed by UNODC, Bappenas and KPK and is ready to be printed.
